

LESSON 20

NIRAV LEARNS ABOUT SHARING

NIRAV: Oh great! My mom packed me the best lunch. Lunch is my favorite part of school. I looked into my bag and what did I see? I saw a slice of strawberry pie and a sandwich with cucumber, tomatoes and chatni. Yum! Yum! Yum! I also have a bag of banana chips and a can of coke. Look out stomach! Here it comes.

NUTAN: Hello. Nirav, Can I sit and eat with you?

NIRAV: Sure. What kind of goodies did your mamma put in your lunch? I am so hungry that I could eat everybody's lunch sacks. Aren't you starved? You don't look too hungry.

NUTAN: I guess so. My mamma is always in a hurry and so she gives me the same thing every day. I am tired of it!

NIRAV: Did you get a cake with icing?

NUTAN: No, I am not that lucky.

NIRAV: All of this will soon be in my tummy. I can't wait to eat. Did you get any fruit?

NUTAN: No, but I got some bread covered with butter.

NIRAV: What else did you get?

NUTAN: That's all.

NIRAV: You'll eat only bread? Won't you be still hungry after you are finished?

NUTAN: We don't have enough money to buy extra things. My father isn't working full time. So this is all I get. Now let's eat.

NIRAV: Your bread and butter sure sound good to me.

NUTAN: Do you want one? I can share, my mother won't mind.

NIRAV: Would you like to trade lunches. Yours sounds great. And, I don't think I will be able to eat all of mine.

NUTAN: If you have just lost your appetite then I have found it. I am going to have a great lunch. Thanks for sharing with me.

NIRAV: No problem, after all that's what friends are for!

(Both eat happily)
