

Munni loves animals

Meet Munni. She loves animals. Look at how good she is playing with her friends. All animals are her friends.

One day, her best friend Mithu, the parrot, was hurt. His wing had been broken.

Boo, hoo!
My wing hurts so much!

Munni wiped his tears and took her friend to the doctor. The doctor said that Munni is going to have to take care of Mithu for some days.

Munni fed Mithu, gave him water, and took care of his broken wing.

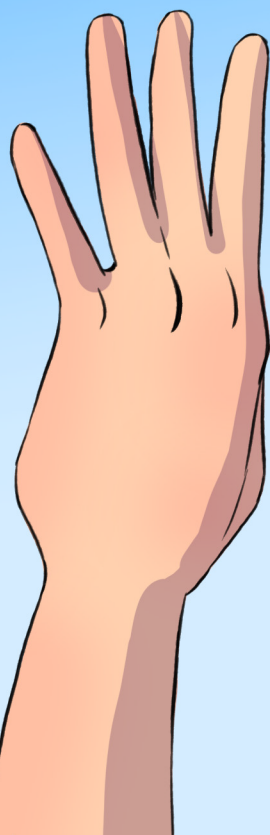

Soon Mithu got better and was ready to fly away. Munni said goodbye to him, and Mithu promised that he would visit her every day.

Goodbye, Munni,
Thank you for taking care
of me

Goodbye, Mithu

WE MUST TAKE CARE OF
EACH OTHER
