

Bad Words

The holy saint Ratanchandji Maharaj was going out of the city when a Brahmin was coming back after taking a bath in the river. The Brahmin loudly said to his friend,

"Whoever sees such dirty saints will surely go to hell."

Maharajaji asked the Brahmin,

"One who sees me goes to hell, but tell me what happens to the one who sees you?"

The Brahmin said that that individual would go to heaven. Maharajaji replied,

"I saw you, so I shall go to heaven. But you saw me, so you will go to hell. Right?"

The Brahmin could not find the words to reply and went on his way.
