

Shree Krishna's Test

One day, Shree Krishna called both King Yudhirsthir and Duryodhan in his assembly. Yudhirsthir was very honest and kind, while Duryodhan was evil and dishonest.

Shree Krishna said to Yudhishthir,

"Go and make a list of all the bad people in this kingdom."

Then turned to Duryodhan and said,

"Go and make a list of the good people in this kingdom."

Yudhirsthir immediately went out and started talking to the people, however, he felt that everybody was a good person. So, he did not find a really bad man, and his list of bad people was empty. Duryodhan also searched far and wide, but he felt everybody was a bad person. His list of good people was empty.

Finally, both of them returned.

The good Yudhirshtir said,

"Oh Shree Krishna, I searched for long but did not find a single bad person. Everyone was good."

The evil Duryodhan said,

"Oh Shree Krishna, I searched for long but did not find a single good person. Everyone was bad."

Shree Krishna told the assembly that a good person could only see good in others while bad people see everybody as bad and can not see anything good in others.

We must see the good in people.
