

The Pen That Will Last A Lifetime

Bests

One day, a man went to a shop where he bought a pen. The man asked the shopkeeper how long will this pen last. The shopkeeper smiled and said,

"A lifetime."

The man went away very happy with his new item.

That evening the pen stopped working. The man returned to the shop and scolded the shopkeeper,

"You told me the pen would last a lifetime."

The shopkeeper laughed loudly and said,

"I was talking about the lifetime of the pen."

The man was very sad and never trusted the shopkeeper again.

Sometimes we feel that a small deception will help us, but it could make people lose their trust.

We must never deceive anyone.
