This deed of gift represents an agreement between the Jekyll Island Foundation and the donor(s) named on the face hereof. Any variation in the terms noted must be in writing on the face of this form and approved in writing by both parties. The Jekyll Island Foundation is a 501(c)(3) corporation under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, EIN 58-2583249. This donation is tax deductible to the extent the law allows. However, Jekyll Island Foundation employees cannot, in their official capacity, give appraisals for the purpose of establishing the tax-deductible value of donated items. Evaluations must be secured by the donor at his/her/their expense. The donor received no goods or services in consideration of this gift. Limited space and the policy of changing exhibitions do not allow Jekyll Island Foundation to promise the permanent exhibition of any object.

Thank you for your support!

The Jekyll Island Foundation operates exclusively for charitable and educational purposes to support the work of the Jekyll Island Authority. Stewardship includes preservation, conservation and the interpretation of historic and natural sites. The Foundation also offers participatory opportunities in planned giving, private donation, corporate support and philanthropic foundation support.
