There have been thousands of apps created based on this topic. However, do you know what was the word to open this trend? This is Alight Motion. This app was developed and released by Alight creative play store at the end of 2018. This quickly created a new trend in mobile photo editing. Instead of using classic filters and editing tools like Picsart, Alight Motion lets you add unique motion effects to your pictures and videos. This app is available for Android and iOS, free downloadable. Alight Motion has received over 10 million installs in the Play Store. This is the best and most popular motion effect application currently on mobile. Many users quickly fell in love with this app because the user-friendly interface and the powerful editing features it offers are really impressive. Features of the applicationAlight Motion is definitely the best professional graphics app for Android you can find right now. The app offers tons of powerful editing features to help you create professional graphical videos directly on your smartphone. Let's explore its outstanding features below. Easily create video graphics and motion effectsThasas the feature of Alight Motion is to add motion effects to images and turn them into unique videos. Or, users can even sew multiple photos to create motion videos thanks to the powerful editing tools provided by the app. It offers a huge collection of unique effects for you to apply for both videos and images. Some of the outstanding effects of distortion/warp, Swirl-Creat vortex effect, Wave Warp-create curved movements on an image or video, or pinch/bulge focus on the point that you choose to increase the details. Not only that blending tool Alight Motion will help you easily create a unique impact that makes video really attractive. You can add different fusion effects to your video by setting them on the timeline during editing. Thanks to this, you will definitely be a really creative and professional product. Powerful and professional editing toolIt is difficult to compare Alight Motion with a professional photo editing tool in Windows. However, what it can do is truly impressive. The application gives users a set of powerful and professional video editing tools so you can freely create on your videos or images. The first tools I want to talk about are vectors and bitmaps. This allows you to and simulate any object you want, then add them to your video. After the new project, you will be redirected to the editing interface. Click blue + here to add a layer or object to the video. Anything you add will appear on the timeline. You can customize the appearance of an object by dragging and dropping it on the timeline. Various objects are available so you can select and add videos. You can make a shape with pre-made cubes, or draw them by hand. Want to make your video more emotional? Select the Audio tab to add a favorite melody to the video. You can also add any text to your video or convert them to subtitles. Alight Motion offers over 2,000 different fonts and lots of color options to make it easy to create something for your video. Easy-to-useAlight Motion has also appreciated its friendly and easy-to-use interface. Although it is a powerful video editing tool with lots of outstanding features, you won't have a hard time getting started with it. Whether you have experience with video editing applications or are a beginner, everything is very clear and easy to use. You can only perform editing actions with one finger. You just need to tap to select a tool, add them to your project, then drag and drop to edit them on the timeline. Many commented that using Alight Motion is even easier than video editing apps on your computer because all navigation and interface is optimized for touch screen. Export video of high quality with many optionsMausus video editing apps will only export video SD quality if you use a free plan only. However, Alight Motion does not. This application allows you to output video of high quality up to 1080p. Supported formats are MP4 and GIF. Not only that, the application allows you to set video quality options before you create a new project or element. Options include:Video aspect ratio: Various options available, including 16: 9,16: 1, 1: 4, 3. Select video resolution: lowest is 180p and highest is 1080pChoose Frame Rate: Maximum 30fps. Background: Available in 4 options: Black, White, Light Gray, and Transparent.In in general, these detailed settings make it easy to create the right project and export the file according to your needs. Free useAlight Motion is completely free to download. If you are a general user and do not have additional requirements, this application fully satisfies you. Free tools are enough for you to edit and export videos of good enough quality. However, there are premium features available in Alight Motion that you have to pay with real money to use. Requires configurationSus you have a powerful graphics program to keep your device running smoothly. Specifically, your device needs to release Android 5.0 or later, 100M of free memory and 3 GB of power storage is available. How quickly or slowly the video output is depends on the configuration of the device. Also note that you have parameters to initialize the project so that you don't waste resources on your device. For example, if you want to share a video on Instagram, just select the video for HD quality, 24Fps, and video aspect ratio of 1:1.What is Alight Motion PRO?
