

JUNE CONFERENCE UPDATE:

We currently have 40 folks signed up. The rooms at the Queen Wilhelmina Lodge are full, unless there are some people who would like to share a room. Check out the Seating of the Divine Facebook Page or the GridMasters page to communicate your needs. Please work together so that your travels will be with ease and grace.

There are back up rooms at the bottom of the mountain in Mena. We have reserved more rooms at the Sun Country Inn in Mena. You can contact them at 499-394-1477 or www.suncountry.com. When you call them, tell them you want the special rate for the Joan and John Walker's Crystal Conference. We will post this information on our website in the next week and also on the facebook pages.

We have rented the entire Queen Wilhelmina Lodge for the three days on purpose so that there will be plenty of time to make personal contact with the land and its special energies. Time will be allowed so that you can make that connection. We would also ask you to bring your Arkansas crystals from last year with you. We will be setting up a special table like we did in our last conference to enhance the energies of the room. Remember, this event is just around the corner. So, if you would like to attend, please sign up in the near future. We look forward to seeing you all at this very, very special event.

We would like to welcome Cliff and Jana to conduct a special group exchange. This is just another step in assisting the group to become as energetically coherent and as unified as possible. If you want to comment, just push *6 and make your comment. And when you're done, push *6 again to mute yourself. Cliff and Jana, you're on!

[2:34 GROUP EXCHANGE:] Note -- This transcription may not always transcribed exactly word for word, especially for the small extraneous comments, "uhs", etc, that occur, but the communication is presented in its fullness.

Jana: Thank you, John! Hello everyone. This is going to be a twenty-minute segment. And it seems that this is going to be implemented. We all know that last month a change in our format was presented where we're going to be stepping up in a more participatory way. So, Cliff and I are doing the first one here tonight. And we're asking that people from our Collective volunteer from here on in these gatherings to facilitate or co-facilitate the twenty-minute segments that will be coming along. I understand that we'll be posting that possibility of signing up to volunteer for this for gatherings to come.

June Conference Information and Group Sharing

We're looking here at the purpose tonight, with an intention of hearing from everyone. And that includes voices that we perhaps haven't heard before and we are really looking forward to hearing. But that said, if you're not really comfortable speaking up at this point, you can certainly write your comments, or if you have questions that come up, and send them, so that in the future John will be able to ask them for you.

So, with those logistics out of the way, I was looking for just the right energetic phrasing to present of what we're intending to accomplish with this twenty minutes. It has to do with stepping up as a Collective. And there are a number of us that have seen certain tendencies in our gatherings, and with the directive that we were given last month, there seems to be an opening here for it being really a new day and a new way. In light of that, in bringing our cohesion and our coherency as a Collective in a more unified, loving way, we're going to be Well, I wondered how to phrase this and Mother Mary said it best last week in the Ask the Archangels. So, I'm just going to read her quote:

"Dearly Beloved, I would love to have an extended conversation with you, but this is not the place, nor the time. This is a public format that we are in discussion for the whole, of every listener. And so we cannot go into personal issues on these types of calls."

And so, with this perfection of Mother Mary's words, we have three lunar cycles until the conference and are being really asked to step up in a kind of an everyday way for the duties that we are going to be collectively performing for all of our Beloveds: humanity, Earth, our Milky Way Galaxy, and of course the All That Is and Source..... and really stepping up into the fullness of who we are.

So, we'd like to ask – what do you see as our directive, as a Collective, as we move forth? Gabriel just beautifully stated how our Spirit is a Collective Consciousness, and we want to really uplift and be completely as unified and coherent as a group that we possibly can be.

So, I'd like to open this up now, unless Cliff is there now.

Cliff: I believe I unmuted myself! As Jana said, we're looking for questions and for people to moderate these calls going into the conference. And questions about the work we're doing, questions about the time locks, and the material that we've got coming, building to this conference. Because we know that we're going to be having a call now every two weeks going into the conference, so we've got a lot of work to do and we'd like to keep it on track.

Jana: And with that said, could people start please begin to press *6 and share. Share your vision, your imaginative nature and your visions for where we can go and what we can accomplish.

[8:08] Hello, this is Charlotte. I want to share with everyone, because, as we did last week and the Collective to formulate a stronger Collective, because I sometimes feel like I'm sitting in the back row, out in the bleachers, viewing. I took and made a template, and it started with a circle to represent the Christ Light or the Creator's Light. And I put a triangle around it and put on those lines the Lords of Light, the Elohim, the Ascended Masters. I put a second triangle around that and I put Joan and John and my name. In putting Joan and John's name around it, I was aware that their names started with the Color energy of Red and so did mine. So, then I decided to take each one of your names and I drew triangles off of that and kept putting each one of your names around it in the Color of the letter that your name starts with. So it ended up with this whole big platform of triangles with a spiraling rainbow wrapping around it, with everybody's name. So I can feel connected to this Collective group to do this work in June.

[9:42] This is Sharka. I was excited when I was hearing from the Lords of Light and Melchizedek that they are leading us individually and collectively, individually to find our masteries. So some of us are already aware of it or were pointed out where the mastery might be. So this is what I am excited about, finding out more about where my mastery is. And I believe that it is in the area where, when I teach people from my experience what I have learned, to identify different consciousness of people and knowing what/how to improve it.

So that's what I wanted to share, but to also today I wanted to thank everyone, the Collective, who sent me Love in my difficult situation. I want to say that I felt so supported and thank you very much for it.

I have learned from that painful situation of losing my grandson how to feel more the chakras. And one thing was interesting, that I felt pain in my body, in my solar plexus and in my Heart. So I asked the question, why the solar plexus? And the answer came because it's the chakra of control. And so I felt like I have no control over that. That's where the pain was coming from. And about the heart, I kind of knew that's where the pain was coming from. And I know I will miss this physical person. So I used the codes and I used the anomalies [procedure] to find out what/why it was so difficult for me to release the pain. It was because I felt guilty if I didn't feel pain for my family. So I cleared that anomaly and it helped a little bit too.

And I also wanted to share the new consciousness that I have gained from a larger perspective. It became important in this time of my overcoming and releasing the pain. And I have learned about Unconditional Love, that it doesn't necessarily mean to give someone something which someone wants. It is what they want and also in relation to what's good for them.

[12:20] Jana: Sharka, may I ask, what's your vision in the present moment for the Collective, with all these beautiful energetic pieces that you're sharing on a personal level with us.

Sharka: As I said in the beginning, to find the mastery of myself and for everyone else, too – to know what everyone else's mastery is and eventually learn that for myself, too.

[12:58] Hi, it's Diana. I have to kind of chime in on that idea of self-mastery. We are really being called to step up as you said, Jana. It is so very evident in my space how we have been guided and given all sorts of tools for clearing, for being more aware. And now we have to do..... And we are so supported by that. But it's for everyone involved in this particular work that we're doing, everyone to recognize their own mastery. And I know for me, it's been a journey, still ongoing, but it is something that needs to be declared by everyone, every individual to be aware of it, and to then go forth and be it. And so, that is very, very clear and evident in our space.

So we have so much support, so much support, that we never need to feel that we're out alone. It's the Collective of our own consciousness, and it just reverberates out. It's like you put a pebble in the middle of still water and you see the circles going out, out, out, out..... And that's the level of support that we have. And so, I'm just saying this to everyone: we are all masters and we have to declare it like right now!

Jana: Hear hear!

What I see, this is Charlotte, what I see as I was putting the colors on – you all are masters. And I could see your master Color codes and your Sound codes that just sit in your name. And I see each person as if this is a big puzzle piece that we're going to put together. And each person is a piece of that. And for you to step forward and talk about and bring forward in our conversations the things that you have to share or are bringing.

I know that I for myself can bring forward the Sound and Color codes for each of you if you do not know them. I can bring forth the use of the crystals and the different shapes of the tips and what they can do for you, if you don't know those. But I don't know who needs the information or who has similar information or additional information. And that's what I feel these twenty-minute get-togethers are about, because I'm doing this at home by myself, but then what are you looking to bring forward? What is your mastery that you're working on, that you already know of? And then sometimes some of us can get together.

Because the picture that I see would be like there's a tree. And some of you have the mastery of being the tree. You just stand there and you anchor and you do it wonderfully. And then there's other people like me. I'm sitting over in the crystal, because they know that that's who I am and what I bring forward. I'm looking for you to step forward and say, "I will bring forward this code, this color, I will bring forward that." Whatever you've been working on that you know about yourself already.

[17:08] Jana: And that's an excellent point, Charlotte. Thank you. Because we are intending to create, shall I say, a beehive, as an imaging, on the Seating the Divine Facebook group page that we can [post on]. Obviously, twenty minutes allows us a certain sacred space in which to visualize and speak to one another. But the Facebook page is an excellent place where we can bring and share in written form and create dialogue that way as well. So it would be another venue available to us that would be ongoing, that we would have as a reference point as well. So thanks for bringing that point up.

Diana: I have to say, "thank you, Charlotte." And I know for me personally, I have begun to do that. So, I think it was just today that I uploaded two pictures, two of several pictures, that I took this past full moon. And I was myself blown away by what I was able to capture on film and not see visually with my eyes.

And as I grow into my mastery, because I'm not quite certain if everyone on this call is aware of what their mastery is, I am just beginning to open up and speak about things that have been occurring in myself. And thank you, Joan. Trusting in what it is that is taking place with me. And I know lately the Galactic Federation of Light has been in my space. I'm aware of them in my space – put it that way. And just recently the Lords of Light.

And how I've been aware of my mastery is through tones. I can't describe them. But it comes with "idea breaths" – ideas. It's not a communication with words. I then have to interpret it. But there are also times in which it's just energy that is being relayed out. And I personally would love to communicate with other people in this group and have them give me feedback as to what they are sensing, because lately I've been with my sister and one other person. So I think, Charlotte, that that is a fabulous idea of using the Facebook and using this time to bring forth that mastery. So thank you!

Jana: Would someone else like to chime in?

[20:29] Yeah, this is Randy. Kind of adding to what was just said – we've been asking for questions to come forward. And for me, my space has been very still and I can't seem to generate questions. But the thought occurred to me that I should speak this, so, a little unusual.....

In the past what we've done is we created small groups that gathered on calls in-between sessions and had discussions. And it seemed to me that when we've done that in the past, that the Collective energy of that..... everybody kind of plays off each other and ideas come. Maybe if we had small groups with the idea of focusing on the work and maybe each group bring forth a question every week that they all agree upon or that came up in the discussions. That's a thought. The other thought is, based on what was just said, maybe some of these groups, these separate calls, form around interests, mastery interests. Like one might be around crystals and what Charlotte was mentioning. And there might be other things people might want to study: Flower of Life – have a discussion around that, or different aspects of what we're learning.

So it just seems to me that sometimes in those small groups our energy builds and our ideas. That's the thought!

Charlotte: I'm open to anybody making contact with me, whether it's through Facebook, email, or a call. This is Charlotte.

[22:26] I'm going to chime in. This is JoAnne [sp?]. I really love this discussion. I like hearing about all the support. And I'm certainly feeling that from the Archangels and the Realms. Just what Randy said as well about having, maybe in our discovery of our mastery, that we step up. If we do have small groups that can discuss, then whoever has that mastery maybe facilitates a group that week or hosts that, and we can connect and really recognize that

I'll speak for myself, but as we transition and the identities crumble, there's still a human element to us. And I feel that that human connection is important. And sometimes conversations can be more close than Facebook. The ability to be able to reach out and maybe have buddies or something like that. So that the gravitational pull of all the chaos and everything that is going on in the world is..... we have an alternative community that we're actually connected with physically, etherically, in all of our spectrums. I'll just put that in there.

Jana: Thank you, thank you. Yeah, it seems as though the Seating the Divine Facebook is a great sort of a touch-base forum that we have in common. Randall, as you're saying, from these smaller groups that are creative and build on each other's visions and so on, that essences of those can be shared on the Facebook group perhaps, so that everybody can be linked in, if you will. And in that way we could begin to really hone our precision of expressing our mastery. And of course it's a process. It may bear great fruit for all of us..... in Love.

June Conference Information and Group Sharing

[24:45] Joanne? I want to thank you for that, Jana. If some of these small groups can be recorded and we can post those links, and if someone is interested in that subject matter, those links can also be posted on the Facebook.

This is Charlotte. We do not have time between now and the conference for a lot of small grouping. We have to step forward right now and focus on that which you are bringing forth and what is bringing forth through you about this up and coming conference. Those are fine for further development of your personal stuff. But you're only talking weeks before this conference.

Cliff: Well, we're talking about gatherings here. So, for those of you who don't know, Jana and I host a call on Monday and sometimes on Thursday. You can find that on the Council of Light page. And we post those. There are other groups that you can go to. So I wanted to mention that. And I think we're about out of time anyway.

John: Yup, we are!

Jana: Thank you very much.

John: Hey, thank you Cliff and Jana both. You guys did a great job and I appreciate the participation from the group as it is. We would like in the future though, the folks that don't normally speak up or have comments, we'd love to have you jump in. I think that once you did that, it would be beneficial to you – we hope. And so y'all, try to kind of remember that. We do need to have our group as cohesive as possible.

And this is a short comment that Collective Consciousness has given us: some suggestions on how to ask a question. I thought that that was kind of interesting, so I'm going to put that forward as well. Here is the comment:

When a subject comes up that is confusing or that you'd like to have some more information about, make a note of it by writing it down. This helps you frame your question concisely. Paraphrase it so it's nice and concise. Also keep it in context with the current teachings. Also, we as a group need to review the foundational teachings that we can use. This can be processed through your smaller group meetings as well as our main group meetings. Continue to take a look at that and see how it will help you. If you are not a part of such a small group, organize one. In this way, you can help each other integrate the materials prior to our larger group gatherings. You can also ask or present questions from your groups that relate to the present teachings. In this way you help expand those teachings and get more information on a given subject. And again, when the Q&A sessions are open, ask your question so that all the group will benefit and that it is for the Unity Consciousness, and not just for an individual.
