Kuthumi/Yeshua merged as the Collective Consciousness of the Ascended Masters:

We would like to provide a space here for anyone who has questions about tonight's teaching or who has comments that they wish to make. We will open it up now for a short period of time, before Metatron comes to do some closing activations.

So, if you have any questions relating to what we have said or questions about the process itself, we invite you to voice them now.

Q1. Kelly: All this new energy that you talked about -- what you said makes sense. It seems like I'm having difficulty absorbing it, owning it. And sometimes I feel like there's more clearing that needs to be done so I can hold these energies better. Is the 8th Ray work we did in Mastering Alchemy still applicable and effective in clearing some of this stuff, victim-persecutor stuff.

Answer1: Of course! As well as that 4th, 5th, and 6th Ray of Creation, because it pertains to your physical life on Planet Earth. Those Rays of Creation and the clearing aspects of those Rays are very important, because in these refined energies, anything that doesn't resonate in perfection with them will surface to be released.

Now, this isn't a long process. Understand this: it's not a long process like you had to engage in some years back. It's just in recognizing how this is stimulating in me a victim role and I choose not to play it. I am capable.

Q1cont'd. Might it be appropriate just to have the intention of the 8th Ray clearing around whatever is coming up for me and then draw in the Light so it's a faster process? It didn't seem appropriate to spend a lot of time writing, with the words, like we used to.

Answer1cont'd: No, it's not. It's in recognition of the anomaly that is present and releasing it with your intention and using the energetics of that 4th, 5th, and 6th Ray of Creation or the 8th Ray. It isn't needed for you to take it through your mental-emotional body, take it through the lower emotions and anguish about that. This is one of the things you are learning to do -- it's feel your emotions at that more refined level, but don't process the anomalies through the emotional body. It keeps you stuck in those lower emotions.

Very good question, because these anomalies will surface.

[4:42] Q2. Joe: You suggested that we spend some time in the energetics and the teaching. Can you be more specific? Should we focus on certain chakras, Strands of DNA, the Light Templates? Could you expand on that and give us some suggestions?

Answer2: Of course. So, if you're reviewing some of that 2014 Light Body work, the first four Strands of DNA, there is a lot of information in there. However, the full activation of those Strands of DNA was impossible at that time, and we told you that. That this is just the beginning stages.

So now, you have in your possession Light Templates of the 5th, 6th, and 7th Dimension, two specific iterations of these massive Templates that you retrieved from the Time Lock. And you can make them more applicable in these Packets of Light that you have specifically placed in the 4th and 5th Strand of DNA, and how that relates to your experience in life. So, your focus of attention is on the energetics of the 5th, 6th, and 7th Dimensional Templates and how that alters your life experience. And when the anomalies surface, it's just in recognition of what it is and that it is no longer useful. And it falls away in the Presence of those Light Templates.

So, it's not a big study process. It's just in Being in that energy. So that's what this private, reflective time is: being in those Light Energies. And just as we took you through some of the process, there was a lot about the concepts. But we asked you to feel it in your body. Feel the energies. Notice the energies and the coherence of the Light Energy in the body.

So this is what we directing you to do. Yes, do the reviews so you have the concepts. You know what that does? That satisfies the rational mind so it doesn't interfere with what you have to do at a Spirit level, at a Soul level -- and that's integrate the energetics and get to know those energetics of that 5th, 6th, and 7th Dimension, so that you can release the density and ascend into those Dimensions fully and take your body with you.

This portion, feeling the energetics, noticing the energetics, and like I have said, it gets you out of your head, out of the rational mind, because the rational mind is satisfied. There's some of that there; it keeps it busy while you, at that SoulSpirit level, embody and feel the energetics. Get to know them intimately, so the body is free!

Thank you, that was a very good point.

[9:46] Q3. Joanne: I'm experiencing tremendous changes in my life in almost every area of my life. What I've noticed is that I have an awareness that all the work I've done to now has kicked in. So, it's just like I can't do it wrong if I tried. And yet, I'm noticing old beliefs arising, with emotions/thoughts attached, and yet the stability of the Presence that I'm experiencing allows those to arise without me actually becoming them. Like something is magnetizing them out of my body, out of my system. And I can start seeing the juxtaposition of how they influenced my life and yet it's simply noticing they are leaving.

You said, "the remembering of the Soul experiences." I felt that that's going to activate even more layering of cellular memories that may activate more of these anomalies.

Answer3: Well, yes, it will activate those. And here again, it's important that you just acknowledge, recognize, and don't get into the emotion around it. Just know that it is leaving and that the new energetics that you are creating in your body don't support that any longer. And so, therefore, it's dropping away. That's part of the density that we have talked to you about, continually dropping of the dense old programs, old patterns. So that will continue.

Q3cont'd: I'm feeling the change/shedding in my life circumstances due to this Light Presence is in preparation for deeper shedding that will come through this anchoring of the SoulSpirit fully. I feel there's another wave of depth that's coming.

Answer3cont'd: Oh, of course! Of course. And so, it's important not to dread this clearing, because it's not just you individually clearing. It's the whole collective consciousness; it's the Earth itself. So, it's not about dreading or that it will be difficult, because as you sit in quiet reflection of the Light that is Present in your body and the extensive frequencies and vibrations that are now available, those leave very rapidly. So, this cleansing can totally take place with Ease, because you are in a difficult state of consciousness. You are enveloped and wrapped in the Unity and Love of the Source of your Being. That energetic, itself, is very powerful.

Q3cont'd: I'm not waffling very much anymore between being the alignment and then going into the old energies. I'm more able to see how they have worked in my life rather than become them.

Answer3: Correct. There you go.

[15:07] Q4. Randall: We've been talking about clearing and I've been feeling an application of the 7th Ray of Creation which we haven't talked a lot about. I have a feeling that there are applications there perhaps for us now in clearing. And also, would it be correct that there's an application also for drawing in and helping to seat in our bodies these higher Adam Kadmon Templates that are coming in from Andromeda and Star Gates? Am I seeing that correctly?

Answer4: Yes, you are saying that absolutely correctly. So, all of these things are coming online and will continue to grow within you, so that you can be who you are and have forgotten.

We have not talked about that 7th Ray of Creation for the simple reason that, at the lower states of consciousness, it becomes a desire to focus on that to escape the pain and misery of the life experience. But that is no longer the case, because you've gotten to a state of consciousness that you understand a lot more than what you did several years ago.

Q4cont'd: Yes, we understand that we are here, as you were, on a mission to resurrect the Earth and humanity, so there's not that desire to leave, but more desire to ascend ourselves and lift everyone else up with us.

Answer4cont'd: Correct, correct -- to be all that you are. Beautifully said!

[17:53] Q5. Email to John: Metatron said on our September 26 call, "The stable 5th Dimensional expression of humans on all levels is transforming our physicality now. There is a massive cleansing occurring throughout the year, this year 2017, that will remove the vestiges of a 3rd dimensional expression in humans and of Earth itself. The complete removal of all 3rd dimensional expressions will take place through 2021."

Her questions are:

(1) Does that mean that all 3rd dimensional expressions in humans and of Earth will be removed by 2021?

Answer5: Yes, that is true to a point. There are those who are in human bodies who are very resistant and refuse to alter any part of their experience in 3rd dimension. And, because they are resistant, they will find it very difficult. But those vestiges of 3rd dimension will be dismissed by the end of 2021.

Now, does that mean that every human on the planet will be resurrected into a higher resonance? Absolutely not, because it depends on the individual themselves.

[20:02] Q5cont'd: (2) The second question is, "how will we see it in Lightworkers and how will it be seen in the human still in the mainstream consciousness?"

Answer5cont'd: Well, here again, you will still see quite a lot of variances in the general populace of humanity. In those who have been on spiritual paths and are dedicated to creating a different experience, to embodying Love, to being in a Unity state of consciousness, you will see a great difference in a portion of humanity that you had not expected by 2021. It won't be very stable in some of those individuals. But in the individuals such as your Collective Consciousness, it will be a very stable positioning. So you will see all levels within the human collective.

Q5cont'd: (3) Will there still be vestiges remaining of the lower-mid or high 4th dimension?

Answer5cont'd: There will be vestiges of that 4th dimensional state of being, because it precipitates change. In those who are resistant, who are slow, who refuse to awaken, the presence of that 4th dimension allows for a possibility of change, that they do have choice. And it's up to them to make that choice. And when they make it, they are elevated to a higher level of that 4th dimension, to give them the impetus to make better choices for themselves, choices that elevate them, that create harmony in their life experience. And they will very quickly be drawn into that 5th Dimensional Template that you have been holding for them for a while now.

So, yes, it is necessary. And it will remain for a while. It's not as disturbing as that 3rd dimension, because that is all about fear and separation and judgment and guilt and all of those things. 4th dimension is a little different. It provides an opportunity for change and creating a different decision for yourself. So, that dimension is necessary until as many humans can come into that 5th Dimensional frequency and create that massive movement into a unified 5th Dimension. And then the 4th dimension will not be needed any more and then it will just drop away. But it will be a while yet.

Farewell from merged Masters Kuthumi/Yeshua and the Collective of Ascended Masters:

So, as much as we are reluctant to close this conversation, dear Ones, we are very cognizant that Lord Metatron is waiting to assist you to activate more fully this 4th and 5th Strand of DNA. So we will bid our farewell to you this evening in this wonderful conversation, and we look forward to being with you again.

Blessings!
