

So let us join together in this Closing, Beloveds, in our Circle of Collective Consciousness.....

Very centered in the Love that is there..... for ALL of us.

Each one of us contributes to the Love, the Element of Love, within our Circle.

Each one is anchored within this Collective Consciousness.....

and nurtured by it,
whether we have bodies or whether we do not.

Irregardless, Love and nurturing are needed, desired, and benefited from.

So as we each one very consciously in this moment contribute our individual Love Element to our Circle and to all who are part of our Collective.....

FEEL the Love that is here and that has been expanded just through each of your individual intentions to give it freely and without limit.....

We are always unified in this Collective Consciousness.

Acknowledge it daily.....

Draw from it.....

And replenish it daily by giving your Love to it,
to each individual and to the Collective as a whole.....

What better way to close a Gathering than in the totality of the Element of Love!

Blessings, Dear Ones, Blessings!
