

Light Shines in the Darkness

Greeting, it is the Collective Consciousness of the Lords of Light as Metatron.

There is an awareness that needs to be brought forth so that an understanding and clarity can be seated within the Seating of the Divine Community. This awareness is in regards to Light and darkness; good and evil and all polar opposites related to the creation of these energies in the physical realm.

We Lords of Light were delighted about the discussion that took place in the Community Call about Light and darkness of the Belial fallen energies. Many spoke about their opinion on this subject. No one was swayed by the idea of others but expressed their view and experience on this topic of discussion. No conclusion was drawn. There was an opportunity that was provided to open and go within individually and contemplate the discussion. Each one of you was guided to take this information in and discern how it played out in your individual life experience. You were given a chance to observe your reactions and determine where there might be confusion. We are here to discuss this with you and clarify some aspects of this vast topic.

You were created in the Light of Source energy as creator beings. You are Light and are manifested as creators in a human form in this iteration. You have free will to create Light or create various shadows of that Light as well as polar opposites of it. What do you choose? Will you choose consciously or unconsciously? Will you follow a group force without considering your individual knowing? These are topics that would benefit you to have some guidance. You are given the opportunity to see what little or how much you know about the functioning of the energetics of Light or darkness. You are given a chance to discover what you know, where you get triggered, and where a belief needs to be changed. This can only be gained from individual solitude and contemplation.

Let us discuss the fact that you are Light; always will be Light. That is who you are. In a human form that is limited by the denseness of a fallen paradigm, the knowing and understanding of this are not fully grasped. Many fall victims to the dense, energetic frequencies of their environment and react to it unconsciously. This environment of which I speak is the 3rd-dimensional body as well as the Earth environment itself. Full consciousness of the Soul's mastery is limited in such settings.

It takes diligence, courage, and tenacity to overcome such adverse environmental conditions. Reprogramming of such energetic atmospheres is called forth. Great warriors of Light often come for short periods to educate, model, and change the energetic frequency format. They do this by their presence and by being the Light blueprint of Christ Consciousness. You have benefited from those who have come before you so that you too can be the fuller expression of your Light. You are evolving into great warriors of Light, teachers, and avatars. The fullest expression of you is accomplished not in aggression or force but by being the Christed Light Template.

It is now time to pay attention to what limits your full expression of Light. Without this teaching, you will falter in your ability to maintain your Light consciously. Looking into the shadows is not something that you should fear but clearly see. It is not something that you can dismiss as irrelevant or not applicable at this time in your ascension process. You may think that you know that you are light and can maintain that thought stably and consciously at all times.

Unstable light consciousness and denser thought patterns are not an easy set of teachings as they feel so heavy and in opposition to your newly developed nature of a Light Being. But it must be done now because any residual darkness must be seen clearly and altered as it surfaces immediately. As uncomfortable as it may seem, you can face it head-on. You will learn a lot about your patterning that may need some further adjustment.

These residual patterns are seen in instantaneous reactions of sudden anger or judgments. They can be seen as feeling doubt in yourself or when you feel inadequate. Fallen patterns are present when you compare yourself to another whom you perceive as better than. Discordinate models are present when the fallen ego tells you that you are superior to another. These are just a few of the dark splits that might remain in your fragmented mental/emotional body or ego that have not yet been fully transformed into refined states of consciousness. These gaps do exist in you at present. It does not mean that you don't have the power to change them. You must only see that you are still a work in progress. There can never be any judgment when you view these anomalies because that engages your lower emotions which makes you feel victimized or unworthy. This type of review and clarity must be done in a neutral state of being. You must take responsibility for what you create and change the creations that do not align with the state of consciousness that you have been developing. Recognize that you are continually transforming and will be transforming until you have entirely ascended into your original state of being.

You are always light. But you are, however, subjected continually to the energetics of polar opposites because of the limitations of the energetic frequencies of specific dimensional paradigms of 3rd, 4th, and 5th dimensions. Yes, even in the 5th dimension has some misaligned creative energies, although the denser frequencies are not as dense and surface less often. But you still must stay aware even at this level because you have so many opportunities to create without the limitations of a linear time program. It becomes even more critical as to what you choose to create as the 5th-dimensional-time sequence is ever cycling calling for continual creations.

It is vital that you continually look at the force of polar opposite imprints of the 3rd, 4th, and 5th dimensions that were present in the final days of Atlantis. These polar opposites were embodied by a group of human individuals called the Belials. They were an influential group of human creators and brought about the final cataclysm of Atlantis. In these last days, there was a misuse of personal will and power. There was manipulation of the mental/emotional body that caused fragmentation within the body structure itself. The Earth environment became toxic as it began to fall in its Light frequencies. The environment could no longer resonate with its former Christ Light Consciousness. The Christed Matrix had to be removed when Earth, as well as human consciousness, fell below the 7th dimension. The human body was not able to hold the fullness of Christ Consciousness even at the 5th dimension because of the removal of the Christed Matrix. The human body was not able to maintain the fullness of the soul's original state of light. These were sad times in the history of the Earth.

The Earth and humanity are now ascending. It is critical that you realize that the body, as well as the Earth, are still in transition. The fallen paradigm imprints are not entirely removed. Pay attention; you cannot assume that all is complete. Look around you. Do you see the disruption and chaos worldwide? Do you not think that this environment might have some influence on you? Your body is still in a 4th-dimensional function. Your consciousness is not stably functioning in the 5th-dimensional state yet. You often falter and stumble. Pay attention and be aware of where the weak points are in your energetic system. Summon your light to shine on the disturbances that limit you. Make changes immediately. Do not wait until these anomalies take hold and cause further reactions.

There is much to consider as you fully evolve your body and your consciousness. Do not deceive yourself that you have arrived. Also, do not be misled by thinking that you cannot be affected by these lower paradigm imprints. Now is the time to stand up. Acknowledge how and when you fall short. Make the necessary changes so that you can continue to shine your light into the crevices that remain in the mental/emotional body, ego, and will. Do not delude yourself that you are above a fall. When you are the Light, you are fully conscious and can see where there are changes to be made. Open your tool bag. Bring out the Light

Templates that you hold and make the changes necessary to create your life experience consciously. There is never any room for self-judgment or fear of any kind. Now is a time for your warrior self to come forth in the fullness of your glorious light.

Archangel Michael is your model. He stands above your Crown Chakra to model the dynamic light that is needed. Set your energy field daily by stationing the four Archangels of Light at the four points of your new magenta pattern imprint of Light. These four great Archangelic Beings will continually model the Christed blueprint energetically to you. Use your new grounding technique daily. These are crucial energetic creations that will assist you in staying conscious so that you do not slip into the illusion of the old paradigm.

When you use these energetic tools, you will be able to stay consciously aware of where the shadows still reside and remove them and replace them with light. You will see where your weaknesses are hidden. You will not judge yourself harshly anymore but quickly make the changes that are required of you.

You came into 3rd and 4th dimensions to create in the limitations of these dimensions to make a difference. It is time to see clearly any limitation, change it, and leave a different imprint of Light in these dense dimensional paradigms. You have the opening now to leave a new template of Light to be present that others can follow.

Blessings,

Metatron
