

[Transcriber's Note: Our full Community discussion is available to listen to in the downloadable mp3's on Joan and John's website. I did not transcribe the discussion itself. But when Yeshua joined the discussion I transcribed those parts.

The last part of Yeshua's Message, transcribed separately as 2C, ended like this to set up our Community discussion:

I think one of the things that we should start off with in this particular discussion is to talk about a broad topic, and that is personal power: what you know about it, how you use personal power, where you see the limitations.

So, let us begin.....]

[We then heard from thirteen group members on what personal power meant to them.]

[30:5] Yeshua: Can you see, Dear Ones, the Mastery at play here in our Community, as you have discussed personal power and what it means to you. Not a hint of dominance over. Not a hint of fear or separation. It's a field of allowing each of you to express your individuality. This, Beloveds, is true power. This, Dear Ones, enables you to have sovereignty over the denser physical aspects of you and transmute those at a cellular level to a more refined state.

How important is personal power to you? I think you can see the importance of that and how it plays out in this community and how that has changed over the years through your experience in your physical bodies, even amongst all those limitations and fractures in your mental-emotional body. You have risen to this state in your personal power field.

Do sometimes you fall short? Of course.....

But it's in those failures that you are able to rise up and reinforce your personal power, true power.

So, maybe we could direct this discussion a little further in expressing your Journey into that true power state -- how it differs from the false power that was originally taught early on, before you had the awareness and access to those Master imprints that you have so expressed in these conversations.

What do you learn when you fall short and use your personal power to rise out of that fracture?

[We then heard from nine more Community members, with occasional questions or comments from Yeshua.] [CM = Community Member]

CM: I learned that the answers come from within.

Yeshua: Absolutely. Do they come with Ease when you can stay out of judgement of yourself?

CM: That's key, isn't it!

CM: Recognition is number one, and making change, and then feeling the energies so I can make a different choice in the future if I have the same thing come up.

Yeshua: I would have a question for you..... And my question is this. Or for anyone else in the community who would like to talk about this. It brings up a very important point that [was] made about making it up to someone or making it up to yourself. Would you say that that would be forgiveness?

[37:40] CM: how to act and be on the inside and the outside this empowered person that we're learning about in our group here.

Yeshua: Yes.

CM: One other thing that I found is helpful is to have a sense of humorand I move out of the judgment.....

Yeshua: Good point! Anybody else want to comment on that or how that shifts when they fall short? shifts them.....

CM: It makes the world go 'round! What we're doing is a very serious thing, but it doesn't mean that we can't have fun while we're doing it.

CM:the power of being a human being at this time and the dynamic of being relational..... that's our humanness.... that humanness is the part I feel that we're adding to this whole mix..... we're breaking open whole portals of consciousness and ways of being.....

[44:55] Yeshua: Thank you! And you are so accurate. This is what you bring to this project, Beloveds! It is your physicality and the relationship between your Spirit and your physical body and how you navigate the Earthly realms, bringing forth that Mastery of your SoulSpirit into form. And it is inter-relational. There is where you shine. And in these Community Calls, this is what you are creating. You are setting a template in these Community Calls to bring a more perfected Image within the human form.

CM:It [now] feels perfectly fine for me to be experiencing partnership..... the Love, the freedom, the forgiveness.....

[49:02] Yeshua: Thank you, thank you. Well said.

Well, Dear Ones, it's about time now to bring to a close this Community Call. What a beautiful Community we are gathered in here. This call, I am sure, for each of us was very thought-provoking, very expansive, where each of us takes from the Community, receives the Mastery of the individual as well as the Collective. And this is the intention for our Community Calls. And, as you will see, they fold perfectly in to the teaching sessions, perfectly intertwined and valuable.

So, we look forward to future, the future of this Community Call and the expansion of it this year in ways that none of us could have expected previously, because it's a creative step-by-step, in motion with excitement and anticipation, that is being built by you at this moment.

We thank you all for your contribution, your presence, your energetic coherence, and your Love. And we look forward to our next interaction.

Blessings, Beloveds, Blessings!
