

Greetings, Beloveds, it is I, Gabriel.

As we gather together in this beautiful Collective Consciousness, let us gather within the Heart of all those participating in this Collective Consciousness.

Let us celebrate the Love that is now present on the Earth, the Element of Love that has been returned to Earth, so humanity can utilize Love proficiently in the creation.... of life experience.

As you focus your attention in your Sacred Heart, become aware of the vast state of consciousness that is open to you, individually and Collectively. This state of consciousness is in full alignment with the Source of the All That Is, with the Source of your Being, with the Spirit of who you are.

And as we gather together in this unified expression of the Element of Love, we gather together Heart to Heart and Spirit to Spirit, as the individuals, and as the Collective Consciousness that we are.

There is no separation in this state of being, Beloveds.
We are unified in this vast Collective Consciousness.....

Now, take a deep breath....
become very present in the moment.....
and let us begin.....
