

Greetings, Beloveds, It is I, Gabriel.

I have come to be with you this evening, and together we will create a very sacred crucible of Light. We will be in the Collective Consciousness of the All That Is.

So, take a deep breath, and as you inhale, inhale Light.

And as you exhale, exhale Love.

Now, inhale Love, and exhale Light.

With each breath, feel your body begin to relax.

Your mind becomes quiet and still..... as you enter into the conscious awareness of the Presence of the Source of your Being.....

In this beautiful Presence of the All That Is, activate your Merkaba field fully and completely at 100% field of Light..... All three Star Tetrahedrons are spinning in their Unified Field of Light, emanating the Light that you are, emanating your unified state with Source.....

Now, within this Merkaba vehicle, notice the first Star Tetrahedron, how completely unified it is. There is no separation in any part of you. In the Presence of the Light that is present in your Merkaba field, you are unified completely. In this unified state, you're physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually unified.

Now, take note of the second Star Tetrahedron, the beautiful luminous White Star Tetrahedron and the vast consciousness that is held within your Sacred Heart.....

A very valuable state of Being, where the Element of Love is very present, activated, and made usable in your creations. The consciousness of the unification of your Spirit, of your Soul, and of Source is very present. In the vibration of this vast energetic configuration, there is no doubt, there is only Love. And this Love you are very aware of, not just for others but the Love of Self, for the journey that you have taken as a human on this Earth. You are happy. And in the Presence of this great consciousness, there is bliss, ecstasy.....

For you now operate in a more refined emotional state. Thoughts are unified with the Mind of Source..... A beautiful expression of you as an individual emanation of Light, Divine Image that you are.....

[6:52] Direct your attention to that third Star Tetrahedron, that beautiful deep, deep Purple emanation, for this is vast, pure Source energy, that you have access to at all times. And in this state of consciousness, in these energetic frequencies, you realize you are not separate from the Source of your Being, nor have you ever been. And you have a full access to the Void, that fertile, fertile ground where there is unlimited knowledge and creation. And you can access that at any moment, just by directing your attention to this beautiful, beautiful Star Tetrahedron. The Light that it emanates is immense, the brilliant. It is conducive to complete unification of your entire Being.....

This state of consciousness is always present in your Merkaba field – always.....

So, as you sit in this vast field of Light energy, you are open to receive what is about to be given to you through the Master Realm, the Angelic Realm, and the Presence of the great Lords and Light and Elohim. You are prepared: you are centered and your Heart is expanded in the Presence of the Element of Love. You have created a fertile ground in which to receive a vaster expression of yourself and your creative abilities.....

So, as you take a deep breath now, become very conscious of your body, and be very present in this very moment.
