

This document is a compilation of notes from various sources on the color codes. Rather than making one compilation, they are presented in different summaries according to when we received them. So there is a lot of repetition, but perhaps this will help us integrate the information and energetics better.

Latest information on Color Codes from the August 9, 2016 Seating the Divine Image:

1. GREEN COLOR CODING:

This stabilizes the Element of Love in our creation

The Element of Love is not an emotion but a very real creative element

It is more powerful than any other element that you use – Do you hear this!?!

The Green Coding is a vibration, a frequency present in your creation – a vast vibratory state

It brings coherence within the environment through the Element of Love

It helps you formulate a confidence in yourself as a creator

It helps clear away those little fragments that attach to you periodically because it brings Unity

When you're using the 8th Ray of Creating clearing application, inject this Green Coding!

2. BLUE COLOR CODING:

This brings in the emotions, which put the creative thought into motion in order to create

It uplifts the thoughts and well as the emotions (and the lower levels drop away)

It gives you the feeling of certainty and the mastery necessary to create effectively

The Blue elevates the environment

3,4. YELLOW and GOLD COLOR CODINGS:

When we first worked with the Yellow, it refined our thought

Now it's transforming our thought into the Gold of Christ Consciousness Thought

We are now capable of using our Christed OverSoul and Christed Mind in the Cube interjecting Thought from that Christed Consciousness

The Christ Consciousness, the Christed Matrix is held within a Gold Star Tetrahedron that is also part of the Cube

5. THE MAGENTA COLOR CODING:

This Coding contains all the Colors, all the Color Codes

The most important of these are White, Blue, Purple, and Gold

Use the other Color Codings for specific application

The Magenta amplifies the effect of other Color Codings

The Magenta upgrades your ability to create from the Unified Source perspective and it allows the creation of a double Merkaba field of six Star Tetrahedrons

The Magenta is more than a gateway into higher consciousness that brings Earth back up into its Christed nature

It is a cosmic gateway through which you both receive and transmit vast energies

It further facilitates the activation of your Light Body and access to all of the gifts of the Holy Spirit

It gives you greater access to the 7th Ray of Creation when you are ready to drop the body

6. THE WHITE COLOR CODING:

This is the Purity of Source Thought and Magnetics so that you have that balance in your electro-magnetic field

7. THE PURPLE COLOR CODING:

This is the Source Void creative energy, the fertile ground from which you create

8. THE INDIGO COLOR CODING:

This elevates the consciousness and affects the mental-emotional body powerfully raising your thoughts and emotions

It upgrades the 2nd Triad by bringing Unity between the Heart and the Head between the one flame in the Heart and in the Pineal

It brings about more Christ Consciousness' and makes it available in your environment

It further activates your Christed Mind

It is composed of the Colors of Purple, Blue, and Gold

The Indigo creates an environment to use the Ze'On Particles of Thought more proficiently.

Notes from July 12, 2016 Ask the Archangels with Raphael:*GREEN:

The green code opens the heart chakra. The soul-spirit's wisdom is in the consciousness of the Sacred Heart. This is only accessed when the heart is open to the self and to others. The green code enters the mental emotional body, and alters fragmentation as it imprints love energy. The green code imparts calmness, flow with ease, and balance. In the presence of love, the body, mind, and emotions relax.

MAGENTA:

The precursor to using it is the green code.

To use it, one must have an open heart. It enters the Sacred Heart's consciousness.

The magenta code contains the undifferentiated love and light of Source, being refined Source energy.

We take the undifferentiated love and light and differentiate this for application.

The magenta code contains all other color codes and amplifies these. So, if you are using the green code, magenta amplifies your ability to hold and use the element of love proficiently. The magenta also contains the blue code, which bonds to and uplifts the emotions; it thus heals the emotions and deposits in the emotions an element of love. It also holds the gold and yellow code, which relates to thought; thus, it heals destructive thoughts through Source love.

Overall, the magenta code allows you to come into a more unified state of consciousness.

The magenta code takes it to another level. It amplifies everything, connects you with the pure source of love. It opens consciousness and you know yourself at the soul-spirit level.

GOLD:

The gold code represents the Christed mind. It aligns your mind with the mind of Source and the Christed mind. Yellow is a precursor to the gold, which works with the mind, allows it to rest so we can align with Source energy (gold code)

Notes on INDIGO Coding from MA, December 2014:

Activating the INDIGO coding (necessary for creation):

Violet Flame --→ shoots up, activates long-dormant INDIGO color coding in 6th chakra. Indigo code then IMPRINTS the creative flame in Pineal center and turns on your ability to use all 2nd Triad applications.

Draw light DOWN from 3rd triad into Eye-of-Horus and Crown --→ draw this light into 6th chakra--→ where it (this light) activates the Indigo frequencies.

Summary of Indigo Coding

The Indigo Coding has color, (unheard) sound, and multiple vibrations of consciousness

- It allows you to begin having a unified consciousness, the unified field of consciousness

- It allows for the use of undifferentiated Light and Undifferentiated love

- It allows you to experience yourself in both the physical and the non-physical

- It begins to set up 5D, 6D, 7D consciousness

The Indigo holds the vibration of the Christ Imaging & how the Christed nature functions.

Using the Indigo Color Coding sets in motion a Unified state of consciousness

- anchored within the Christed Imaging, expressed in your thoughts and emotions

After the fall of consciousness, St. Germaine installed the Violet Flame in the Heart

- It holds the memory of Christed Imaging

- It holds the structuring of using the Second Triad as a creative force

  - that's then brought into the First Triad Heart for manifestation

- Its purpose was so we would never forget this set of subtle memories

- It burned away, dissolved anything that threatened these memories

The Indigo Coding is composed of Undifferentiated Light drawn from the upper 7 chakras,

It is drawn down through the chakras in to the Sapphire Blue Star Tetrahedron

- between the 7th and 8th chakras, interfacing the upper 7 and the lower 7 chakras

It comes in as Undifferentiated Light without color until the Indigo is activated

It is drawn through the 7th chakra, through the Eye of Horus, through the 6th chakra

- The color Indigo has been dormant in the 6th chakra since the fall of consciousness

- When the Indigo Coding is drawn through the 6th chakra, it activates the color Indigo

- The code is activated through the vibrations of the color in the 6th chakra

It is then brought into the Pineal where it expands the Pineal Flame

- which becomes a brilliant Indigo Color

From there, it is directed into the Violet Flame in the Heart in the 1st Triad

- This expands and activates the Violet Flame, activating its Soul memories of

  - Christ Consciousness and how to use the 2nd Triad to create as a Creator Being

It brings forth the creative Christed Imaging, expands the Sacred Heart & Unified Field

The Indigo and Violet Flame energetics are then brought back up from the Heart

They flow through the mental-emotional body, into the chakra system, to the Pineal

- The Christ consciousness becomes more available through your thoughts & emotions

- You become aware in the non-physical aspects of you in your thoughts & emotions

When the expanded energetics of the Indigo and the Violet Flame come to the Pineal

- the now Indigo flame in the Pineal expands even more

- and that Christed Imaging becomes conscious

From there, direct the Indigo Coding into the Medulla Oblongata, opening it

- This impacts the brain, the neurological structuring, the biochemicals of the body

Then direct it into the mental-emotional body, altering the thought and emotion

- as the Christed Imaging becomes more seated in the mental-emotional body

INDIGO from MA Summer Crucible #4 with Jim and Joan, August, 2015, Summary:

This session activated the Indigo Color Code, allowing humanity to return this Color Code to the Elementals to be imprinted into the very fabric of Earth.

Much information about the Indigo Code was given:

The Indigo Color Code includes a sound frequency, a sound vibration beyond human hearing. It expands the Second Triad, the Pineal flame, the medulla oblongata, the Arc of the Covenant.

The Pineal flame becomes a brilliant Indigo color, consistent with the Christed OverSoul and Christed Imaging.

It is drawn into the Violet Flame in the Heart and anchored in the Sacred Heart.

It expands the Violet flame, so that, in addition to preserving memory of the Christed Imaging and clearing fragmentation, it becomes a viable force for Christed creation.

It further expands the Sacred Heart, the Triadic system, and the Unified Field.

It allows you to experience Union with Source and yourself as the Christed Image and Christed OverSoul, in the Silence of your Sacred Heart.

You are the Christed Crucible in form, the Love and Image of Source in a physical body.

The Indigo Color Code is a combination of the Purple, the Blue, and the Violet, accompanied by the Golden Yellow of Christ Consciousness

The Indigo Color Code is drawn from the higher chakras through the brilliant sapphire Blue Star Tetrahedron into the Crown chakra and Eye of Horus into the Pineal center of the Second Triad, where it expands the Pineal flame exponentially so it burns with the merged colors of Blue, Purple, Violet, Gold, and White, so it comes into resonance with Christ Consciousness and the Christ Imaging then down into the medulla oblongata, which expands the Arc of the Covenant then into the Violet Flame in the Heart, activating it bringing you into resonance with your Christed Imaging and Christed OverSoul

The Indigo Color Code is drawn that that color of the Third Eye, a purpley-blue Light the Indigo is a merged combination of the Purple and the Blue the Purple exponentially expands the Blue; the Blue tempers the power of the Color Code

It stems from the Third Triad and the Godhead and is brought through the Eye of Horus

The Indigo comes from the Godhead through the Third Triad into the Eye of Horus and the Third Eye down through the Pineal and anchors itself in the Violet Flame in the Heart

The Violet Flame was placed in the Heart by Saint Germaine long ago until it became time to reintroduce this Indigo Color Code The Violet Flame was placed in the Heart to clear out emotional patterns of separation and maintain a memory of your Christed Imaging deep in the Heart With the merging of the Indigo Color Code and Sound current, the Christed Imaging becomes more available the Violet Flame in the Heart expands united with the Christed OverSoul

Now there is an activation of the Christed Matrix in the Heart affecting the Violet Flame so it can be pro-active in creation of Christed creation, acting as a creative force and also presented back to the Elementals All this is done through the flames in the Heart and Pineal

INDIGO from MA Summer Crucible #5, 2015:

All the Color Codings are an essential part of Light Body activation. The Indigo Blue Coding has a very important effect on the mental-emotional body, as it raises the mental-emotional body to its Christed formation. It expands your awareness of Self as a Christed Being in the physical and nonphysical realms. Every Triad, chakra, and lobe of the brain is affected, beginning to open up clairaudience, telepathy, clairsentience.

The Heart creates an energy in the mental-emotional body that moves up into the Pineal. The Flame extends into the medulla and expands it exponentially, affecting the electrical functioning of the brain, affecting the creation of the Ze particles of Light and their merging with the On particles. This then expands the Arc of the Covenant exponentially around the body, so there is no separation between the Arc of the Covenant and the body at either a physical or a nonphysical level, so each person can perceive themselves as Spirit using a body to express individually. The Flames in the Heart and Pineal burn simultaneously in all directions, extending into the Crown to open it further. SoulSpirit becomes One with the Holy Spirit Shekinah. The Indigo Coding stabilizes the Unified Field which is exponentially expanded.

We are dealing with three Color Codes: Blue, the Gold Christed Coding of thought, Indigo
The Indigo is really composed of all three of these Color Codes in a merged state
The Color Codes each also continue to work independently
It is like the colors in a candle flame: White in the center, surrounded by Golden Yellow, with Blues and Purples around the outside These Color Codes in the Flames in the Heart and Pineal represent the Undifferentiated Light from Source where it descends through the chakra system into the body and becomes differentiated for various applications and intentions
The Flames in the Pineal and Sacred Heart are equal and balanced

The effect of the Indigo Blue Coding on the mental-emotional body is very important so the Sacred Heart can direct these refined vibrations from the level of physicality through the mental-emotional body through the chakra system back into the Pineal

This affects the Second Triad greatly where Christ Consciousness becomes more available through thought and emotion both in the physical and nonphysical realms

The Indigo raises the mental-emotional body to its Christed formation

The mental-emotional body is affected by the Indigo Color Code and the force of thought is united with the Universal Mind and the Mind of Source as well as the effect of the Blue Coding within the emotional component so the emotions match with the Christed Mind allowing you to express yourself from the Christed OverSoul

We raise the energy vibration that is created in the mental-emotional body from the Heart then begin to move it back up into the Pineal

The Flame extends into the medulla oblongata and expands it exponentially affecting the electrical functioning of the brain as thoughts are processed in the neurology affecting the creation of the Ze particles of Light and their merging with the On particles as they are expressed in the physical realm, the thoughts, emotions, and manifestation

This then expands the Arc of the Covenant exponentially around the body so there is no separation between the Arc of the Covenant and the body at either a physical or a nonphysical level so each person can perceive themselves as Spirit using a body to express individually

INDIGO from MA Summer Crucible #6, 2015:

The Indigo Coding enhances the magnetics of the magnetic field, helping to unify it with the vast electrical field of the Arc of the Covenant. This is done through feeling and sensing those electrical charges in the vastness of the Arc of the Covenant that is now around the body. The Arc of the Covenant cannot be incorporated into the body because it has a vast component related to Source, but it interfaces coherently within the body and within the mental-emotional body. The Arc of the Covenant assists through the Color Codes to bring great coherence to the system. The interface of the electrical Arc and magnetic 10th Ray further alters the electro-magnetic field of the body, allowing the Christed OverSoul to begin to direct your thoughts, emotions, and life.
