

This is Jody, hi! I just want to say, you guys, I am just so grateful for the growth, the opportunity, the friendship, the community, the Unity, the fun, the information, the dedication/devotion. I mean, all of it! And you're right. I'm horrible about writing it on facebook, but there isn't enough appreciation and gratitude for what you've done. You know, the growth that has really, really exploded in my space. Thank you!

Joan: Well, thank you for those comments, Jody, but you know it takes all of us. I think all of us were committed to join together in a Collective Consciousness. So, we added our energy to that. So I think it speaks volumes for the whole Collective. But we really appreciate your comments. And, if there's anything that we miss along the way and you'd like to hear more about, please feel free to tell us about that.

Jody: I do! I'm not shy! And yes, there needs to be a Collective to be joined with the Collective. I'm grateful, I'm grateful for this body of work and the community that I feel very much belonging to.

Joan: Great!

John: Thanks for the comments!
