Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

1 Kgs 17:10–16; Heb 9:24–28; Mk 12:38–44 or 12:41–44

Ouch! That's the sound of someone giving until it hurts. Most of us probably will never be in such a situation. It's not that we don't give, but that we are seldom asked to give until it really hurts.

The women in today's readings were in desperate straits. They hurt even before they opened their hands to give. Both belonged to one of the groups of vulnerable people often identified in the Bible - namely, the resident alien, the orphan, and the widow. Since the social structure of a patriarchal society is usually built on male kinship, those with no male patron were extraordinarily vulnerable. Consequently, Jewish law made special provision for them (see Deuteronomy 24:17, 19–21; 26:12–13; 27:19). The women in these stories were disadvantaged because they were women, they were widows, and they were poor. How these deprivations interacted with each other isn't specifically mentioned. It's not their state of deprivation that makes them models for us to emulate. It's their generosity despite their deprivation. The widows featured in today's readings gave from their hearts, not from their abundance. They recognized need in another and did what they could to address that need. That is the virtue set before us today. It is, indeed, heroic!

Do we do what we can to help others in need - as little as that might be? Or do we cling to what we have, to what we say we have a right to have because we worked for it? Are we that uncaring? Ouch! That hurts!

Meditation

In its section on Expressions of Prayer, the Catechism of the Catholic Church concentrates on three things: vocal prayer, contemplative prayer and meditation. Here are some questions about meditation with answers from the Catechism.

What is meditation?

"Meditation is above all a quest. The mind seeks to understand the why and how of the Christian life, in order to adhere and respond to what the Lord is asking. The required attentiveness is difficult to sustain." (CCC2705).

How do we engage in meditation?

"There are as many and varied methods of meditation as there are spiritual masters. Christians owe it to themselves to develop the desire to meditate regularly, lest they come to resemble the three first kinds of soil in the parable of the sower." (CCC2707)
"Meditation engages thought, imagination, emotion and desire." (CCC2708)

Why do we meditate?

"This mobilization of faculties is necessary in order to deepen our convictions of faith, prompt the conversion of our heart, and strengthen our will to follow Christ. This form of prayerful reflection is of great value, but Christian prayer should go further: to the knowledge of the love of the Lord Jesus, to union with him." (CCC2708)

What can we use to facilitate meditation?

"We are usually helped by books, and Christians do not want for them: the Sacred Scriptures, particularly the Gospels, holy icons, liturgical texts of the day or season, writings of the spiritual fathers, works of spirituality, the great book of creation, and that of history – the page on which the 'today' of God is written." (CCC2705) For further study: CCC2705-2708.

10th Anniversary - Diocesan Men's Conference - Saturday, November 20, 2021. DeSales University Center, 2755 Station Ave., Center Valley, PA 18034

This year we celebrate our 10th anniversary, join us and claim your gifts in service of God and His Church during the Year of the Real Presence. Scripture tells us, "Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another" (Proverbs 17:17). The Diocese of Allentown Commission for Men provides an annual opportunity for men to gather from across the Diocese for a time of prayer, fellowship, and sharpening. The Diocese of Allentown Men's Conference was begun in 2012 with about 180 men and has grown to over 600 men for the past several years! As a result of the Conference, friendships have been forged, local men's spirituality groups formed, marriages strengthened, and lives enriched.
