Jenny Barak – Music Editor

www.pitchnsync.net

Inspired by a passion for music and a fascination with technology, Jenny Barak started her career in 1996 after she graduated from CSUN's Department of Cinema and Television Arts. While working in the business for 10 years, Jenny developed a distinctive personalized approach to her clients. In 2007, she combined her experience with her entrepreneurial spirit and launched Pitch n Sync, a company that provides music editing for the film and television industry.

With her extensive understanding of music editing and her client-oriented approach to business, Jenny's proud to have worked on hundreds of hours of TV favorites, including Grey's Anatomy and Mad Men, as well as films that have become cult classics a la Donnie Darko.

Below is a selected list of Jenny's body of work as a music editor.
