Short Topic Programs

All workshops are 1-3 hours in length as specified

Back-to-School Issues — 1 hour

Get practical tips for getting back into the school swing. Learn how to make the August-to-September transition go smoothly. Find tools for decision-making such as after-school care and when kids can be left home alone.

Bedtime Hassles — 1 hour

Learn how to prevent and stop misbehavior at bedtime and make bedtime a fun, pleasant experience for everyone! Get practical solutions to the Top Ten Bedtime Hassles most parents experience, and how to handle the four types of tantrums. Get kids to bed, asleep, and staying there!

Build a Bridge to Healthy Relationships — 3 to 6 hours

Face the fears and bust through barriers that commonly arise in relationships between foster parent, biological parents, caseworkers and teachers. See a “style show” that reveals the secrets for communicating effectively in each relationship. Learn and practice practical skills that will build trust and cooperative working relationships at every stage of contact.

Christian Child Care: The Scriptural Basis for Foundational Parenting Theories and Proven Practices — 1-3 hours

Parenting/Child care practices based on foundational parenting theories and long-term research of effective parenting/child care practices are consistent with Biblical principles. This unique workshop blends both by presenting the best language and action tools in a dozen parenting skill areas and offering Biblical references for each foundational theory/practice. Topics include: parenting styles, building self-esteem, gaining cooperation, developing children’s responsibility and independence, effective listening and communication skills, behavior management, respectful discipline and family councils. If you are a Christian parent or work with parents or children in Christian settings, learn the practical parenting/child care skills you can use, model and teach — every day, for life!

Controversy About Corporal Punishment — 1 hour

A recent California bill proposed a ban on all forms of corporal punishment. Learn what research says about the effectiveness of corporal punishment, what effective discipline tools parents can use instead of corporal punishment.

Couple Communication — 2-3 hours

This workshop helps couples prevent and resolve conflicts that naturally occur in any relationship, by following a three-step process. Through stimulating discussions, interactive activities and skill application and practice, participants will understand concepts like problem ownership, common mind games couples play, communication roadblocks to avoid, and more. Participants will also learn how to use problem-solving, listening, and assertive communication skills, as well as learn what to do when the person or situation won't change. Depending on the age and status of the audience, this workshop can be customized for teen or adult couples (married or pre-marital) or friend-to-friend/peer relationships.

Dealing With Difficult People — 1 hour

Get practical tips on dealing with people who criticize, complain, and control, at home or at work. Immunize yourself against toxic family members you have to be with over the holidays. Use the Universal Blueprint Effective Response Formula in your adult relationships!

December Holiday Parenting Issues — 1 hour

Learn how to cure the Holiday "Gimmees" and teach children to be grateful givers. Get the tools you need to shop without whining, begging or tantrums. Practical advice on avoiding embarrassing gift-giving faux pas (like insulting Aunt Susie's gift).

Developmental Stages & Effects of Abuse/Neglect — 3 or 6 hours

Understand the developmental stages children typically follow and the effects that child abuse and neglect can have on children's development. Recognize when developmental delays or misbehavior are a result of the child's developmental "style," past upbringing or a true developmental delay.

Effective Single Parenting (E.S.P.) — 3 or 6 hours

Single parents need ESP --- Effective Single Parenting --- to overcome the daily stresses and challenges they face. This interactive workshop shows single parents how to maintain a balanced life and prevent stress overloads; build and maintain their self esteem and their children's; guide children through grief and separation issues; improve teamwork with parenting partners; and use effective communication skills to resolve conflicts with the children and adults in their lives.

Keep Your Cool – Even When Kids Are Erupting — 1-3 hours

Discover the simple secret to being in control of your emotions instead of feeling like they control you. This informative workshop explodes myths and bubbles over with practical ideas you can use immediately. Learn the secrets of preventing stress & anger build-ups. Discover the two simple steps for helping any child create an individualized stress and anger management plan. Be introduced to a one-minute technique that can immediately calm someone down and gets great results at de-programming trauma, phobias and even some learning disorders! Learn the Top Ten Talking Tools that help you express your concerns clearly and respectfully.

Getting Back Talk? Let's Talk — 1 hour

Have you ever listened the way your child talks to you and think, “We would have never talked to our parents this way!”? Understand why today’s kids often act and talk the way they do and learn how to prevent children from using back talk, rudeness and smart-alecky remarks with you and other adults. Recognize when “sass” is intentional or un-intentional... and how to respond effectively to each type of problem.

Getting Kids To Cooperate the First Time You Ask — 1-3 hours

The #1 most popular presentation for parents! Learn why children often do what you just told them not to do, and how to prevent this; also learn the Five Best Tools for getting children to cooperate the first time you ask. Get practical tips on preventing and stopping power struggles. Also find out which tots will go through a “no” phase and which teens will rebel – and how you can beat the odds. Learn how to motivate kids without bribes. This workshop will give you the tools for quick change and long-term results!

Healthy and Unhealthy Competition — 1 hour

Learn the difference between healthy and unhealthy competition, and discover healthy ways for children to be involved in competition, sports, and extracurricular activities. Also: how many extra-curricular activities are too many? Learn how to help children maintain life balance and reduce extra-curricular stress.

Halting Homework Hassles — 1 hour

Discover the six causes of homework hassles, how to prevent problems, and respond so children take responsibility for their own work.

Get the F-A-X: Listening, Problem-solving, and Communication Skills That Empower Children —for Life — 1-3 hours

Discover how to use and model “F-A-X Listening,” a simple three-step process that helps children express their feelings appropriately, while teaching them how to independently solve problems and resolve conflicts. Use F-A-X Listening to open the lines of communication in any relationship — with children or adults!

Misbehavior and Discipline: Clear Guidelines Now Revealed! — 3-6 hours

Erase the gray lines that often define misbehavior and discipline with the clear guidelines offered in this entertaining, interactive and informative workshop. Recognize the five causes of “unintentional” misbehavior and how to respond to each challenge. Identify the four purposes behind intentional misbehavior and redirect each one—without escalations or unintentional payoffs. Then follow the “Four R’s of Effective Discipline” by using these practical tools to teach self-discipline.

When these challenges arise, do you want to confidently respond in a respectful way that gets results? Instead, do you find yourself running out of options? Getting frustrated? Being tempted to resort to tactics, tricks and threats to force your children to obey? Or end up giving in to avoid a fight? Have you come to realize that none of these desperate approaches work in the long-run — but aren't quite sure what to do instead? Want to know what up to 40 years of long-term research proves will work? This workshop series will help you process, clarify, practice and apply the practical language and action tools in The Parent's Toolshop® book. Any parent worldwide can participate from the comfort of home!

Home Study Program for Parents OR CEU Professionals

(Approved for 10 hours of CEUs...about 30 hours real-time)

This home study involves reading The Parents Toolshop®: The Universal Blueprint for Building a Healthy Family book and completing and submitting the practice exercises at the end of each chapter. For your convenience, we'll send each chapter's exercises to you by e-mail so you can simply reply to each one, type in your answers and send them. Complete these and submit a final review (about 50 questions).

* CEU participants must fill out more comprehensive review questions to meet state requirements

Optional Add-on: Have a certified Parent's Toolshop® instructor review and comment on your answers.

Optional Add-on: Have a pre-post parenting skill assessment to see in exactly which skill areas you improved and how much.
