

Resources for teaching music skills to your class

Catalog 2024

Freedom to Teach

Giving you all the tools you need

Why should I use Jolly Music in my class?

Inspired by the Kodály approach to music teaching, the programme uses multi-sensory activities to embed and hone children's musical skills through singing. Expertly crafted and created, the program enables you to deliver music lessons that will make a difference to your children's music education.

- Child-centred approach that uses traditional playground rhymes and songs to teach key musical elements like pulse, rhythm, pitch, loudness and speed
- Multi-sensory, with all the teaching done through singing
- Packed with games and activities, making every lesson fun

Jolly Music is for every teacher!

Q: I'm not a music specialist and don't know where to start?

A: The program has been developed so that any teacher can access it. The lessons are carefully sequenced enabling you to teach music skills with confidence.

Q: I can't play an instrument.

A: All the teaching is done through singing.

The Music Handbooks

The best start to teaching music skills.

- 30 clear, structured and sequenced weekly lesson plans
- Photocopiable child assessment record
- Resources section with songs, rhymes, actions and games
- Templates for craft and/or rhythm activities
- Supporting CDs with all the teaching and repertoire tracks

For the beginner music teacher:

- Well sequenced lesson plans
- Supporting teaching tracks on CD
- No music reading needed

For the experienced music teacher:

- Lesson plans based on Kodály principles
- Resources section allows flexible use
- Music notation provided

Jolly Music Big Books

The perfect accompaniment to the Handbooks.

- Large, easy-to-read format
- Fold-out stand for whole-class teaching
- Pictures show appropriate actions
- Pulse marks guide children in performance
- Each big book contains the complete collection of rhymes and songs for each level

Jolly Music Player

Perfect for whole-class music teaching.

This software allows you to display the entire repertoire of songs and rhymes used in each Level of the Music Handbooks on your whiteboard or projector screen.

- Quick access to any song or teaching track
- Displays songs and rhymes on the screen with audio
- Animation features show the pulses and the time of the actions in songs and rhymes
- Create your own playlists
- Print song information and posters as well as all the photocopiable material from The Music Handbooks
- Suitable for use on Mac or PC
