

Luxury Walks: Plaza-Midwood with Liz

Hey ya'll, welcome to Charlotte! A great place for young people, largest city in NC & capital of "the New South". Here's the scoop on the coolest hood around.

Plaza Midwood

Neighborhood

Stroll down Central Ave & up your street cred. You can grab ice cream, go antiquing, browse an art gallery, eat some ribs & get a tattoo- all on the same block!

Bechtler Museum of Modern Art

Art Museum

Head downtown to the Bechtler-This Mario Botta designed building is my favorite for mid-20th-century modern art. Check out the glittering Firebird out front!

420 S Tryon St, Charlotte
(704) 353-9200 bechtler.org

Zada Jane's Corner Cafe

Café

My favorite for a locally-sourced, organic Southern breakfast- omelettes, grits & a big ol' fluffy biscuit. You can even play shuffleboard while you wait!

1601 Central Ave, Charlotte

Soul Gastrolounge

Gastropub

End your day at my favorite spot for late night drinks & tapas. It's got a cozy feel, handcrafted cocktails and a great view of the Charlotte skyline.

1500 1/2 Central Ave, Charlotte

Amelie's French Bakery

Bakery

Stop in for mid-day treat + French press. You haven't lived until you've had the Salted Caramel Brownie. Open 24 hours, there's always a time for Amelie's!

2424 N Davidson St, Charlotte
(704) 376-1781 ameliesfrenchbakery.com

Price's Chicken Coop

Fried Chicken

Price's is a local staple. Each bag of fried cholesterol (you can see the grease through the bag) comes with slaw, a roll & hushuppies.
