Perfect weather, amazing tacos, terrible sports teams and home to both Top Gun and Anchor Man. It's hard not to love San Diego.

1 El Zarape Restaurant

Mexican

Hands down, my favorite Mexican food on the planet. No frills, just damn good tacos, burritos, homemade salsas and horchatas. This is heaven.

3201 Adams Ave, San Diego
(619) 578-2600 elzarape.net

5 Turf Supper Club

Lounge

If Donnie Brosco had a favorite bar, it would be the Turf. Leather booths, horse-themed wallpaper from the 40's and a massive grill in the middle of the bar.

1116 25th St, San Diego
(619) 234-6363 turfsupperclub.com

9 La Posta de Acapulco's

Mexican

La Posta is your jam for late late night tacos. Perfect for people-watching, spicy hot sauce and soaking up all the alcohol in your blood.

3980 3rd Ave, San Diego
(619) 295-8982 laposta.menutoeat.com

13 Coronado Beach

Beach

Home to white sands, Hotel Del Coronado and Top Gun. Bring a blanket, turn your phone off and get lost to waves crashing.

1063 Ocean Blvd, Coronado

2 The Casbah

Rock Club

The Casbah is a San Diego institution for over 25 years. Nirvana, Pearl Jam, Weezer, Rocket From The Crypt, Sonic Youth... need I say more? Best. Music. Venue.

2501 Kettner Blvd, San Diego
(619) 232-4355 facebook.com/casbahmusic

6 The Fish Market San Diego

Seafood

Grab a seat on the back patio and gaze out onto the bay while throwing back some fresh-caught fish (and margaritas). Sunglasses a must.

750 N Harbor Dr, San Diego
(619) 232-3474 thefishmarket.com

10 Starlite

Lounge

Same owners as The Casbah, Starlite offers a local sourced menu, indoor/outdoor dining and the tastiest Moscow Mule this side of the Pacific.

3175 India St, San Diego
(619) 358-9766 starlitesandiego.com

14 Alexander's On 30th

Italian

When you're ready for a taco-break, Alexander's is the spot. Delicious pizza, salads and pastas - grab a seat in the outdoor patio.

3391 30th St, San Diego
(619) 281-2539 alexanderson30th.com

3 The Mission

Breakfast

Hands down, the best french toast on the planet. Also in love with the Mission Rosemary, breakfast burrito and anything with avocado.

1250 J St, San Diego
(619) 232-7662 themissionsd.com

7 Azuki Sushi

Sushi

Everyone has their favorite sushi spot but not everyone packs the freshness and flavor like Azuki. A staple for happy hour and lunch deals.

2321 5th Ave, San Diego
(619) 238-4760 azukisushi.com

11 NuNu's

Lounge

My first and only bar tending gig. NuNu's doesn't have to try hard. It just is. You don't come here to be seen. And if you want to drink alone, even better.

3537 5th Ave, San Diego
(619) 295-2878 nunuscocktails.com

15 Petco Park

Baseball

The Padres might stink but this ballpark is far from it. Head over to Tony Gwynn monument and pay tribute to Holiday Matinee's brick.

100 Park Blvd, San Diego
(619) 795-5000 padres.com

4 Balboa Park

Park

One of the oldest parks in the country, a trip to SD isn't complete with out a stroll through Balboa Park (which serves home to the world famous SD Zoo).

1549 El Prado, San Diego
(619) 239-0512 balboapark.org

8 La Jolla Cove

Beach

La Jolla might be richie rich but it's hard to argue the cliff-side views are anything but epic. Be sure to check on the seals.

1200 Coast Blvd, La Jolla

12 Pokez Mexican Restaurant

Mexican

Punk rock Mexican in the heart of East Village. Pokez is a staple for touring bands and locals alike. Menu is enormous and their salsa is to die-for.
