

YVETTE VAN BOVEN SHARES HER FAV SHOPS AND MARKETS

Yvette van Boven, a famous Dutch cookbook author, lives in Paris and Amsterdam. As a Kitchen Table Food friend she reveals where to shop in Paris on our site.

Feb 2017

Kitchen Table Food
jauntful.com/kitchentablefood

©OpenStreetMap contributors, ©Mapbox, ©Foursquare

1 Marché d'Aligre

Farmer's Market

"The best place to find Moroccan herbs, couscous, pickled lemons, and a good address for French cheese, second hand stuff and retro clothes as well."

Place d'Aligre, Paris
+33 1 45 11 71 11 equipement.paris.fr/marche-couvert-beauvau-marche-d-aligre-5480

5 Librairie Gourmande

Bookstore

"Take some time for this cookbook store. It looks small at first, until you discover there's much more upstairs!"

90 rue Montmartre, Paris
+33 1 43 54 37 27 librairiegourmande.fr

9 La Vaissellerie

Furniture / Home

"For cheap (white) kitchen and dinnerware, and for things you never new you really could not do without."

85 Rue de Rennes
+33 1 42 22 61 49 lavaissellerie.fr

13 Café des Deux Moulins

Bistro

"The area of Rue Lepic is one of my favorites. Rue Lepic is the street where the café of Amélie Poulin (from the movie Amélie) is located."

15 rue Lepic, Paris
+33 1 42 54 90 50 cafedesdeuxmoulins.fr

Sign up on Jauntful.com to make your own.

2 Marché des Enfants Rouges

Farmer's Market

"A great market for 'street food', located in a beautiful street. It's the oldest indoor market in Paris, dating back to 1612"

39 rue de Bretagne, Paris
+33 1 40 11 20 40 equipement.paris.fr/marche-couvert-des-enfants-rouges-5461/

6 La Bovida

Shop

"They sell extremely expensive pans, pans you can only dream of."

36 rue Montmartre, Paris
+33 1 42 36 09 99 labovida.com

10 G. Detou

Grocery Store

"If you need something that is hard to find, go to G. Detou. If you pronounce it right, it sounds like j'ai de tout = I have everything."

58 rue Tiquetonne, Paris
+33 1 42 36 54 67

14 Marché Saint-Pierre

Fabric Shop

"At this large and 100-year-old department store they sell all kinds of fabrics: fine French table linens, upholstery fabric, summer cotton, lace, leather..."

2 rue Charles Nodier, Paris
+33 1 42 64 10 86

3 Marché Bastille

Market

"Huge market, just like the Albert Cuyp in Amsterdam! Open Thursdays from 7 am to 2.30 pm, Sundays from 7 am to 3 pm"

Boulevard Richard Lenoir, Paris
+33 1 43 24 74 39 equipement.paris.fr/marche-bastille-5477

7 A. Simon

Shop

"If they don't sell it, it probably doesn't exist. China, glassware, bakeware, pans, out of this world!"

48 rue Montmartre, Paris
+33 1 42 33 71 65

11 Cafés Verlet

Café

"For the best Lapsang Souchong I go to this beautiful coffee and tea shop."

256 rue Saint-Honore, Paris
+33 1 42 60 67 39 verlet.fr

15 Merci

Department Store

"Bring a baf of money to this department store! It has an organic restaurant for lunch downstairs and a café in the front at the book section."

111 boulevard Beaumarchais, Paris
+33 1 42 77 00 33 merci-merci.com

4 Puces de Vanves

Flea Market

"A very nice flea market. It has it all: collectors' items, 'brocante', and antiques. You'll never leave this market empty-handed."

Avenue Marc Sangnier, Paris
pucesdevanves.fr

8 E. Dehillerin

Shop

"A little touristy, but it's a very good store for copper pans and knives."

18 rue Coquillière, Paris
+33 1 42 36 53 13 eshop.e-dehillerin.fr

12 La Grande Épicerie de Paris

Gourmet

"The first time I visited I got tears in my eyes. Just watching the butchers tying meat 'French-style' is a feast."

38 rue de Sèvres, Paris
+33 1 44 39 81 00 lebonmarche.com