

Where to start and end the day in Paris

11 places to start the day and 4 places to end the day. Enjoy Paris! For more info see www.kitchentablefood.com
Feb 2017

 Kitchen Table Food
jauntful.com/kitchentablefood

©OpenStreetMap contributors, ©Mapbox, ©Foursquare

Du Pain et des Idées

1
Bakery
Famous for its enormous Pain des Amis made with organic flour and buttery croissants.

34 rue Yves Toudic, Paris
+33 1 42 40 44 52 dupainetdesidees.com

Myrthe

5
Tea Room
A beautiful deli with brick walls filled with all kinds of delicacies. There are a couple of tables where you can have breakfast or lunch.

10 rue de la grange aux belles, Paris
+33 9 86 24 40 22 myrtheparis.fr

Holybelly 19

9
Breakfast
Be surprised by the American-Australian-French breakfast menu and by the fact that everyone speaks perfect English. This is Paris 2016.

19 rue Lucien Sampaix, Paris
+33 9 73 60 13 64 hollybellycafe.com

Miznon

13
Israeli
Go here for the roasted cauliflower, pita sandwiches, and vibes. Everything is so darn good here!

22 rue des Ecouffles, Paris
facebook.com/miznonparis

Sign up on Jauntful.com to make your own.

Rose Bakery

2
Bakery
Have yourself an organic breakfast amidst crates filled with veggies and flour sacks.

30 rue Debelleye, Paris
+33 1 49 96 54 01

Ten Belles

6
Coffee Shop
Hopefully you don't have to wait too long in this tiny bar that is almost always packed with coffee lovers.

10 rue de La Grange aux Belles, Paris
+33 1 42 40 90 78 tenbelles.com

La Bossue

10
Bakery
Think freshly baked carrot cake, scones, matcha cake, granola, lentil-goat cheese salad, beet salad with grains, quiches, French cheeses.

9 rue Joseph de Maistre, Paris
+33 9 81 72 65 59 labossue.com

Canal Saint-Martin

14
Canal
Grab a bottle of wine, a baguette, and some French cheese or pâté and set yourself down on the quays along Canal Saint-Martin.

Quai de Valmy, Paris
paris.fr/pratique/Portal.lut?page_id=8625

Le Peloton Café

3
Coffee Shop
Bike rental and coffee shop. After a breakfast with a good Belleville coffee and a doughnut or waffle, explore the city by bike.

17 rue du Pont Louis-Philippe, Paris
+33 6 24 58 02 15 bikeabouttours.com

Season

7
Bistro
Located in the upper Marais with a très cool decor you'll get acai bowls, matcha bowls, avocado tartine, pancakes, homemade lemonade and juices.

1 rue Charles François Dupuis, Paris
+33 1 42 71 52 97 season-paris.com

Le Poutch

11
Café
The brunch menu offers a giant bowl of granola with fromage blanc, frittata, pastry's, fresh juices, and of course coffee. They have some vegan options as well.

13 rue Lucien Sampaix, Paris
lepoutch.fr

Pasdeloup

15
Cocktail
Very well prepared cocktails, insanely good spicy popcorn, and tasteful small plates with lots of veggies.

108 rue Amelot, Paris
+33 9 54 74 16 36 pasdeloupparis.com

Fragments

4
Coffee Shop
Excellent coffees here, including aeropress and filtered coffee. There is a small and constantly changing food menu. Irresistible carrot cake!

76 rue des Tournelles, Paris
fragmentsparis.com

Don Antónia

8
Food
This tiny Portuguese family-run coffee-shop and 'pastelaria' sells delectable 'Pastéis de Nata' (custard tarts) and succulent 'Bolas de Berlin'.

8 Rue de la Grange aux Belles, Paris

Marché des Enfants Rouges

12
Farmer's Market
You'll enter a maze of food stalls selling dishes and snacks from all over the world. There are also organic and vegetarian food stalls.

39 rue de Bretagne, Paris
+33 1 40 11 20 40 equipement.paris.fr/marche-couvert-des-enfants-rouges-5461/