Vesturbæjarlaug

Pool

Go for a swim at the outdoor pool. A good tip: If you're here in the winter, go in the evening and watch the Northern Lights in the water. It's pretty cool.

Hofsvallagötu, Reykjavík

Harpa

Concert Hall

Go to a concert or get fascinated by the cool reflections and awesome constructions. It's artsy, and it's nice!

Kaffi Vínlyl

Café

Spin some records whilst indulging your favourite sounds and tasting the amazing (!!!) vegan foods. You won't be disappointed.

Hverfisgata 76, Reykjavík

Brauð & Co

Bakery

This lovely, small bakery makes everything from sour dough bread to warm, delightful pastries. A little piece of France in the cold North. Do not skip it!

Valdis

Ice Cream

Ice cream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream. Take a pit stop at the old harbour and build your ice cream with home-made pleasures. It's oh-so-good!

Hallgrímskirkja

Church

Feeling a little cultural? Check out the church on top of the hill and take the elevator all the way up (900 ISK - but do it!) to see Reykjavik from above.
