

Summer Weekends In Summer Towns: Amagansett and Montauk.

no point in listing the beaches, the parks or mentioning the surf or stand-up paddle boarding. instead here's info on where to indulge and find inspiration.

Parrish Art Museum

Art Museum

after 119 years of existence, things are finally starting to happen here. worth a gander, though still preposterously pompous (as most things hamptons are).

279 Montauk Hwy, Watermill
(631) 283-2118 parrishart.org

Bostwick's Chowder House

Seafood

unfussy roadhouse that doubles as a lobster joint. i'm a fan of their rolls, as well as their whole lobster specials. outdoor seating or fun dining area inside.

277 Pantigo Rd, East Hampton
(631) 324-1111

Mary's Marvelous

Bakery

coffee and doughnuts. egg sammiches and bagels. you get the drill.

207 Main St, Amagansett
(631) 267-8796 marysmarvelous.com

Shagwong Restaurant

Pub

don't eat here. just drink. that's what the stones did when staying at the memory motel or squatting at warhol's place in montauk. one day, it will be gone.

774 Main St, Montauk

Guild Hall

Art Gallery

hit and miss, but there is some money supporting the space, so it's worth checking their listings. sometimes there's a talk, other times a performance.

158 Main St, East Hampton
(631) 324-0806

Balsam Farms

Farmer's Market

a very solid farm stand / mini-farmer's market.

Town Ln, Amagansett
(631) 316-8784 balsamfarms.com

The Lobster Roll Restaurant

Seafood

when you see the roadside sign for "LUNCH," that's where summer and montauk begins. pricey and touristy but you know that already. part of the magic of montauk.

1980 Montauk Hwy, Amagansett
(631) 267-3740 lobsterroll.com

Cavett's Cove

Outdoors & Recreation

hidden surf oasis accessible via low tide by hiking east of trailer park or bushwacking past tick hall (dick cavett's $62M home). public beach, 50s malibu vibe.

End of Deforest Rd, Montauk

Pollock-Krasner House

both the surprisingly tiny house and even smaller studio are worth spending much time in. i loved walking around the grounds but i also suggest a guided tour.

830 Springs Fireplace Road, East Hampton

La Fondita

Tacos

it's not bad. quite agreeable, as a matter of fact. from the road, doesn't look like much but the outdoor space out back is where you'll feel the taco love.

74 Montauk Hwy, Amagansett
(631) 267-8800 lafondita.net

Harvest on Fort Pond

Mediterranean

friends with kids love to eat here. outdoor dining better than indoor, which tends to feel too uptight. portions are often HUGE: two people can share an entrée.

11 S Emery St, Montauk
(631) 668-5574 harvestfortpond.com

Crow's Nest

Hotel

sunset cocktails are pretty much the only reason to go here. another spot that doesn't look like much at first glance but lovely gardens out back. gets CROWDED.

4 Old West Lake Dr, Montauk
(631) 668-4483 crowsnestmtk.com

Nick & Toni's

Italian

if you want to run into alec baldwin, then hang around, kid.

136 N Main St, East Hampton
(631) 324-3550 nickandtonis.com

Jack's Stir Brew Coffee

Coffee Shop

in amagansett, this is my favorite place to grab a cup of joe. a genuine oasis. after getting your order, sit outside in the back gardens overlooking the quad.

146 Montauk Hwy, Amagansett
(631) 267-5555 jacksstirbrew.com

Zum Schneider MTK

German

so i have a weakness for german food but i'm not stupid. it's good for breakfast, brunch or lunch... hearty farmer food with beer, but inappropriate for dinner!

4 S Elmwood Ave, Montauk
(631) 238-5963 zumschneider.com/MTK.htm

Duryea's Lobster Deck & Seafoo...

Seafood

it was sold last year, so i have no idea how the new ownership is going to fuck it up. i loved the lo-fi, low-rent lobster rolls here... who knows what's next?

65 Tuthill Rd, Montauk
