羅生門

Sake Bar

Located underneath the train tracks in Shimbashi, the sake bar has a subterranean feel you just won't find anywhere else.

新橋1-13-8, 港区
+81 3-3591-7539

喫茶 いまあさ

Café

You'll have to walk down the steps and into the basement of an unmarked building to find this hidden cafe that will make you feel like you slipped back in time.

東新橋1-1-21, 港区

パーラー キムラヤ

Tea Room

This kissaten-style cafe in the "Shimbashi Bldg" has really unique interiors and signage.

たぬき 新橋本店

Sake Bar

A fun robata-yaki style eatery where they serve everything on large rice-scooping spoons.

新橋3-19-3, 東京

喫茶 フジ

Tea Room

Also located in the "New Shimbashi Bldg." Coffee, tea, sweets and a large photo of Mt. Fuji at this memorable kissaten.

新橋2-16-1, 東京

烏森神社

Shrine

Made from concrete and surrounded by buildings, Karasumori Shrine is like no other shrine. Nestled in the backstreets, it makes for a great walk.

青樹 本店

Sake Bar

A hidden gem along the backstreets of Shimbashi. If it's warm out, grab one of their outdoor seats and take in all the surroundings.

カフェテラス ポヌフ

Café

Japan's answer to pasta, this spot serves up true Japanese Neapolitan Pasta. Order the hamburger too - they go great together.

新橋2-20-15, 港区
+81 3-3572-5346

Musashiya (むさしや)

Yoshoku

Head here for omu-rice (omelette rice) and other Japanese takes on Western food. But a lunch expect a line of salarymen. Located inside the "New Shimbashi Bldg"
