

Philadelphia by Rashid Zakat

Here's a short list of some of my favorite places to eat, drink, read and get together with friends on and off the beaten path.

Feb 2017

Rashid Zakat
jauntful.com/rashidzakat

©OpenStreetMap contributors, ©Mapbox, ©Foursquare

Rittenhouse Square 1
Plaza
Rittenhouse Square is in the heart of Center City. Depending on the day, you could find a farmers market, art show or music festival.

on Walnut St, Philadelphia

FARMiCiA 5
New American
There's no bad time to go to Farmacia. Brunch, lunch, happy hour or dinner -everything here is local and delicious.

15 S 3rd St, Philadelphia
(215) 627-6274 farmiciarestaurant.com

The Barnes Foundation 9
Art Museum
The Barnes hosts a legendary collection of fine art and events. It's worth a few visits to fully absorb the collection and layout.

2025 Benjamin Franklin Pkwy, Philadelphia
(215) 278-7000 barnesfoundation.org

Honest Tom's 13
Tacos
Breakfast tacos. Need I say more?

1800 Vine St, Philadelphia
Sign up on Jauntful.com to make your own.

Village Whiskey 2
Whisky Bar
Village Whiskey has the best burger in Philadelphia. The bartenders do a great job of helping you choose from their expansive whiskey list.

118 S 20th St, Philadelphia
(215) 665-1088 villagewhiskey.com

Agno Grill 6
Mediterranean
Agno has a host of healthy salad and wrap options, but their homemade sauces and dressings are the real winners.

2104 Chestnut St, Philadelphia
(267) 858-4590 agnogrill.com

Joseph Fox Bookshop 10
Bookstore
Great hidden bookstore for design, fiction and architecture.

1724 Sansom St, Philadelphia

Nook Bakery and Coffee Bar 14
Bakery
Mike and Edna curate the best local coffee and bake delicious goodies. I recommend a matcha latte and an eclair.

15 S 20th St, Philadelphia
(215) 496-9033 nookbakeryandcoffee.com

North Bowl 3
Bowling Alley
Northbowl is a great place to get together with friends for some bowling and drinks. It's cash only.

909 N 2nd St, Philadelphia
(215) 238-2695 northbowlphilly.com

Avril 50 7
Coffee Shop
Great coffee and great indie magazines. If you're into niche publications, this is the best spot in Philadelphia.

3406 Sansom St, Philadelphia
(215) 222-6108 avril50.com

Shofuso Japanese House and 11
Historic Site
Shofuso is a hidden oasis of calm in the city. This is the perfect place to relax, meditate or read.

Horticultural and Lansdowne Drs, Philadelphia
(215) 878-5097 shofuso.com

One Shot Cafe 15
Café
One Shot is a bakery, coffeeshop and light brunch spot. Great to hang with friends, do a little work, or relax with a good book.

217 W George St, Philadelphia
(215) 627-1620 1shotcoffee.com

Swiss Haus Bakery 4
Bakery
You can't go wrong with anything from Swiss Haus, but the Strawberry Shortcake will blow your mind.

35 S 19th St, Philadelphia
(215) 563-0759 swisshausbakery.com

Ramen Bar 8
Noodles
Every city I visit, I try a few ramen spots and so far Ramen Bar has the best ramen in the US. Their drinks and desserts are great too.

4040 Locust St, Philadelphia
(215) 243-9999 ramenbarphilly.com

Art in the Age of Mechanical R... 12
Gourmet
Go to Art in the Age to sample some of their spirits, find some great books and stylish wears.

116 N 3rd St, Philadelphia
(215) 922-2600