

The Cora Conner Spear Memorial Scholarship Fund The Bob G. Herring Scholarship Fund for the Study of the Concepts of C.G. Jung

This fund was partially created with a gift from the estate of Cora Conner Spear, a beloved student, member, and supporter of The Jung Center of Houston. In her honor, The Jung Center grants scholarships to those otherwise unable to attend Jung Center classes or programs. The Jung Center welcomes students of any race, color, nationality, linguistic or ethnic background, gender, age, sexual orientation or disabling condition.

Requirements for Scholarship Application

- Scholarship applications must be completed fully and returned to The Jung Center at least two days prior to the first class meeting or event.
- Applicants will be contacted regarding their application status before classes start.
- Scholarship recipients are expected to take the course they request on their application. Any change must be arranged with the Registrar. Scholarships must be used during the term in which they are received.
- Scholarship recipients are expected to attend all meetings of the class or the entirety of the event. Absences may affect future scholarship consideration.
- Return completed applications to:
