

Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

The Crown seeks a child named Valerie to save our land from a witch's evil curse. Armies of frogs are invading and it is said that you are the only child who can possibly help us!

Valerie, if this scroll reaches you, go outside and yell "I'm right here!" as loud as you can. Already a search party is forming to look for you.

We will listen for your shout, and we will send you a package o'er the next few weeks to help us!

Kabook!
