

The HeartWay

Embracing Life thru Honoring Death

Dear Applicant.

Congratulations for taking the first step into changing your lives and the lives you touch! The HeartWay End-of-Life Practitioner training program is a Two-Level Training inclusive of a Supervised Internship Program for professionals and those called to give and care for those before, nearing, and after death. We champion an approach to care that is compassion-focused and relationship-centered and address both personal and professional development through experiential learning and pragmatic application.

An ELP will learn how to assist in co-creating a visionary map with the dying and their families to help navigate through the labyrinth of fear, perplexing medical systems, emotional and spiritual landscapes, and practical end of life decisions.

The HeartWay is committed to provide services, opportunities, and education to all. We provide counseling, education, advocacy, ministry, and programs to help ease the challenges that arise with dying and death, and the grief that follows. The HeartWay believes that an equitable world creates a richer life for us all. We actively create, recognize, celebrate, and value the diversity amongst us. We define equity as recognizing the unique needs of each individual and ensuring that all can access the same opportunities with differentiated supports; removing the predictability of success or failure that is correlated with any financial, social, or cultural factor used to marginalize or oppress individuals or groups.

We are happy to consider your application to join us for the End-of-Life Practitioner Certification Training program.

Eligible applicants must demonstrate the desire, constitution, compassion, and drive. It is important for you to put thought and your heart into the essay to help us choose amongst the many applicants. We have limited space. This program is very personal, transformative, integrative, and in-depth

We look forward to receiving your application.

Shared with Love and Compassion,

Deer♥Andrea
