

What is an energetic
Boundary...
(and 5 classic types)

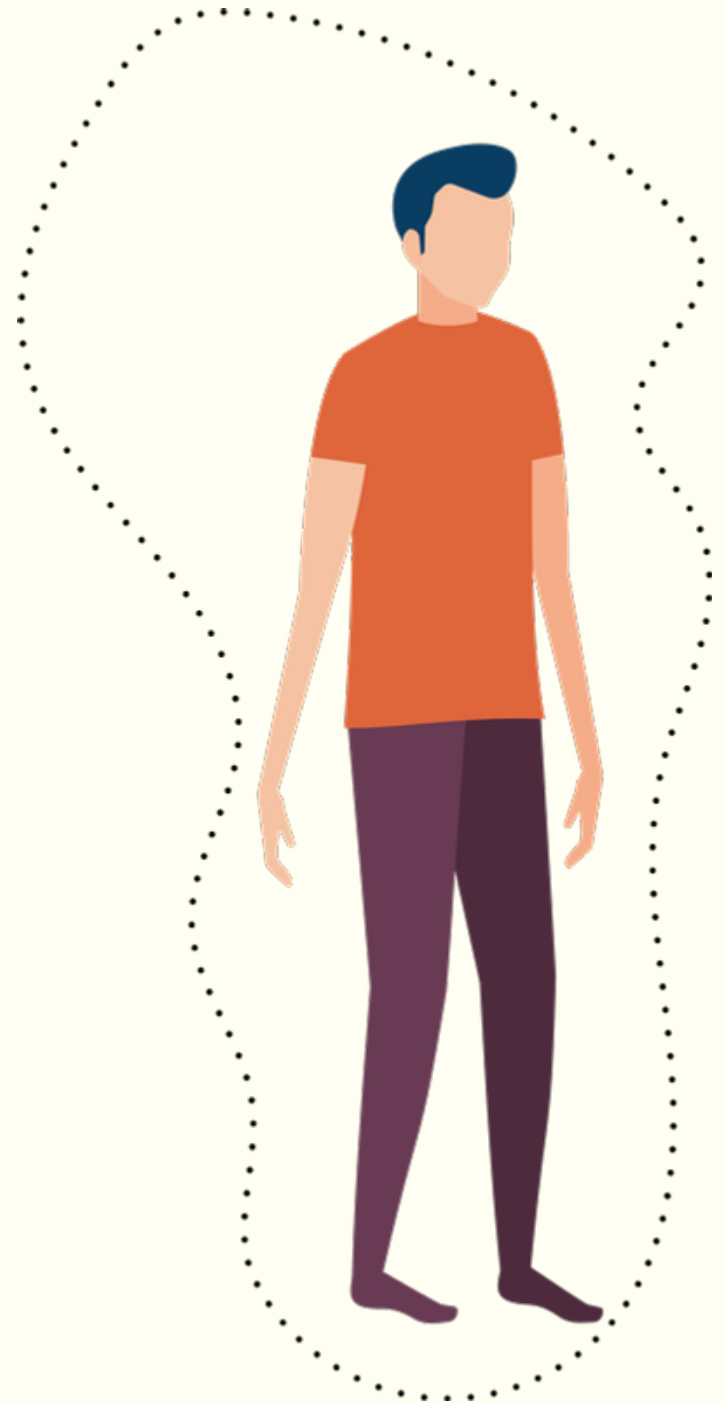

A boundary is the edge of your aura, the eggshell-shaped energy field around you that is your personal domain.

You have a baseline boundary that changes shape, depending on the people and situations you encounter.

Someone with a PRIEST Energy Signature has a PERMEABLE BOUNDARY. Their energy field is expansive, allowing them to easily tap into energetic, creative, spiritual realms. They can be overwhelmed with too much incoming energy.

Someone with a LOVER Energy Signature has an
ENMESHED BOUNDARY. They like to have lots of interaction with others, with energy
always flowing in both directions.
This makes it hard to define themselves
versus others.

Someone with a
GARDENER Energy
Signature has an
ACCOMMODATING BOUNDARY.
They often take on
other people's energies.
They will change their boundaries to avoid conflict and please
others.

Someone with a
WARRIOR

Energy Signature has an AGGRESSIVE
BOUNDARY.

They influence people with the bigger energy in the upper part of their field. It can feel controlling
and intimidating
for others.

Someone with a ROYAL
Energy Signature has a RIGID BOUNDARY.

They are not easily
influenced by others.
They maintain a consistent but less flexible field. They can be hard to connect with emotionally.
