BREAKTHROUGH TRACKER

This is your personal Breakthrough Tracker! As you participate in this live training, capture the insight that lights you up.

When you hear something that makes you think "YES! This makes sense!" or "I never thought of it that way!" or "This is exactly what I needed to hear!" that's your cue to grab this page.

Here's what to do:

- Optional: Color in a lightbulb (if you love coloring, go for it!)
- Write your breakthrough, aha moment, or insight on the line next to the lightbulb

Capture things like:

- Ideas that spark motivation or give you momentum forward
- Strategies you want to try immediately
- Realizations about your career or next steps
- Concepts that completely shift your perspective
- Moments that give you clarity or confidence

Don't overthink it, just write it down while it's fresh! These insights are gold for your transformation.

Hi Natalie,

I wanted to let you know that on Friday I had two job offers with the State of New Hampshire. I used one of them to negotiate up the job that I initially was interviewing for and really interested in. Your program really was fantastic in helping me do this. I start this Friday on the 13th and have done my prep work for Day 1 on the job.

Thank you so much.

Warmly

Hey Natalie!

I can't believe I'm going to type this but I accepted an OFFER! After some back and forth with them I accepted. I'm so glad I had those decisions already made that you recommend inside the program! The process was much easier knowing exactly what to say when they first sent it, and how to handle each situation and having you available to help me when they came back with the counter was super useful!!!

I appreciate all you do and I am so excited because I have to tell you this was the best investment I have made in myself and for my family. Now when sitting down with my husband to go through our finances and upcoming expenses, we will be planning a little differently because I now officially make more than him 🤪! I look forward to continuing to uplevel with you inside your time to thrive mastermind and see where else this can take me! Totally worth the money!

I love listening to the podcast too because it feels like we are best friends.

Natalie,

Every month my husband & I sit down to go over the finances for the month, I used to feel nervous about it because it normally ended in a fight. He wouldn't like something I spent money on and I would get nervous for him to start asking me about specific purchases.

After working through your program things have changed on that front. I am feeling a lot more happy to talk to him about the purchases because I know that I significantly contribute to the income of the family plus if he doesn't like something I'm fine about it and I know that my salary is helping to cover college for our son.

I couldn't be happier with the decision to invest in this program, not just for the financial aspect of it but because of the peace of mind I now have over my ability to make decisions without needing approval from others. I really love the freedom it's created on a day to day basis for me.

I wish you much love and success in your business and I know you will continue to help many other women with this.

Hey Natalie,

I just wanted to let you know that I accepted an offer at Mediacore for 125k! That's 25k more than I thought, but I followed the negotiation module and IT WORKED. Your program definitely over-delivered. I made myself go through the whole thing, I went through the worksheets and the program delivered. I am so excited that we can now start planning to get approved for a mortgage now after the 3 month probation is complete we will be able to get approved for a house! This never would have been possible without your program!

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all you do.

Wanted to share a win!

Hi Natalie,

I wanted to give you an update, I can now see how I was coming off as negative. In my mind, I have all these things I want to do but when I'm communicating I come across as too general.

Thanks to your program I just started my new position and my first thoughts were "I don't know if I Can do this, what if everyone else is better than me what if I don't know enough" Your words stuck with me. I asked myself the questions in the Intentional Self-Confidence module and it changed my attitude completely. I started reading all the guides and I figured out how to do the tasks they gave me quickly! I stopped procrastinating and they were really impressed with me!

Your program is the best program I've ever done (and I have done a lot of programs for learning technical things but nothing like this) I plan on joining your mastermind because you are the best at changing my mindset into the way to get me results.

Thank you for your wisdom and encouragement.
