Forgiving Within

— How to complete your treasure map

01 Mentally drop into the lower gut

You must truly forgive the layers in the subconscious mind with the 'I Forgive' principle. Not what is in your conscious mind.

02 Clean within each layer

Apply the 'I Forgive' principle to each layer you find. Ensuring you go deeper within. Deeper down.

03 Getting stuck

If you get stuck on a layer, continue to repeat the same 'I forgive…?' statement that you are on. This is called an ego block.

04 Withdraw the entire shadow

If completed correctly you will find release from fear as you discover the well of love within, that belongs to the right mind.

05 True healing

True healing is when you have purified what you think from fear to love, as you let go of illusions to know truth.

EXAMPLE MAP

I forgive seeking to welcome in money into my life. I forgive my money. I forgive the need to clean my money. I forgive the need to have clean money. I forgive the need to find ways to clean my money. I forgive the need to not have guilty money. I forgive the need to not be guilty. I forgive guilt. I forgive guilt. I forgive being released from guilt. I forgive the need to be released from guilt. I forgive being released from guilt. I forgive guilt. I forgive guilt. I forgive being released from guilt.

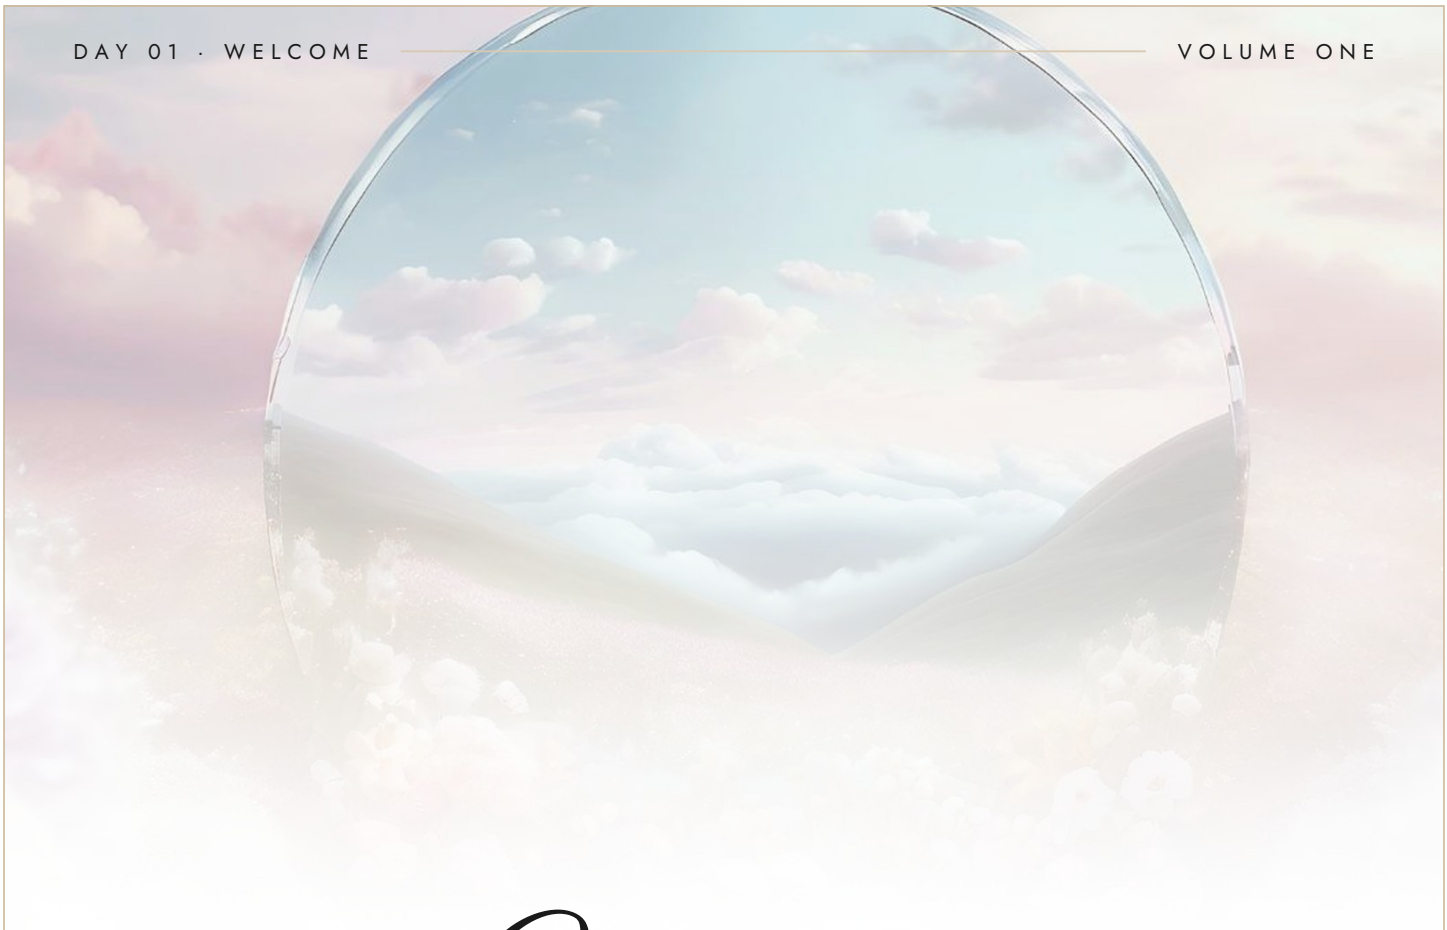

NOTES

By mentally tapping on each layer with the 'I Forgive' principle you will eventually open the door from guilt to grace that leads to the love you seek: Oneness with Perfect Love, Source or God. But you must be truly forgiving that which is in your subconscious mind, not the myriad of thoughts that belong to the wrong mind of separation and shadows.

The key is to go deep within to purify your perception from false to true. To reclaim the true & positive Thoughts You share with God.

You will eventually find the love you seek that is perfect, peaceful and powerful. It has been hidden underneath the guilt of sin the ego teaches to project without.

Welcome to The Treasure Map of Truforgiveness, FAITH & the 'I Forgive' Principle. As you begin to make your way within the map gifted by God, you must come to know the FAITH of Truforgiveness, that allows you to forgive at the cause and not merely the effects of form. You see, Truforgiveness is the maker of miracles. For it undoes pain in the present, restoring peace, love and innocence for All to your awareness. All by changing your mind from wrong to right.

Truforgiveness, via The Treasure Map, allows you to let go of the guilt of separation, providing freedom from ego fear, as your awareness is restored to the mind of completion. It doesn't say, 'I will forgive but not forget,' for when you have 'forgiven within', you come to know the truth: this world is a dream, not your reality. As such, why would you withhold forgiving within when it is simply a mistake to be corrected, not a sin to be punished? However, this does not mean you would stay a doormat to ego abuse.

What seemingly came to hurt you has now helped to truly heal you. For true healing is the change of mind from wrong to right, from separate to the same, and from fear to love.

What once was seen as a burden is a blessing. This is why you become thankful to your brothers. For without a brother showing you where it was you had buried your pain, you would have no way to find where it had been hidden. The Treasure Map has the power to turn the grievance into gratitude - that is how miraculous she is.

Of course, if you honestly believed the body to be who we truly are, Truforgiveness might be hard to accept. But as truth is spiritual, everything that happens in the dream of separation can be a blessing or a curse. It is a blessing if you truly forgive, for it will lead you Home - to a state of Oneness with All. And a curse if you get stuck in the story, when forgiveness seems the last thing you are willing to grant. This also relates to the two states of Heaven or hell. Depending upon what mind you make your own - the right or the wrong - determines how you interpret the events of form.

Gone will be the darkness that was covering your glorious sight. No longer will you be stuck in the shadows of sin, guilt, or fear, for you have arrived at the core of love itself, perfect peace; the right mind of revelation. There is nothing separate about this Perfect Love, for it is unconditional and united in completion not competition.

It never asks someone to stay, for freedom is at the core. It won't ask for favors or reward of any kind, for it lets go. It allows You to remember that God is, and there is nothing else - that this world and all those seeming problems are not real, for only that which is eternal is worthy of being called life.

Behind every grievance you have sits the perfection of love. The dream of duality you see, the illusion of separation that you believe to be life is in fact death. It is where you come to die in the dream of duality, over and over again. Until you start to climb the ladder of Truforgiveness Home, by backtracking within, all of this is difficult to comprehend - for the last thing the ego wants you to do is to truly forgive. For it knows its demise is certain. If you do indeed learn to change your mind from wrong to right.

Truforgiveness is when you follow the path of FAITH, digging with the 'I Forgive' Principle, to place your idols of separation upon the altar to God. In essence, you say to the Father, 'I will have no other gods before you.' The only other god you can choose is the ego god, which is an illusion, not truth. So in every moment, you have two choices: God or the ego. One brings you perfection; the latter grants problems.

The Treasure Map will lead you Home - to awaken to your perfect, peaceful, powerful Self. It is a way out of the dream and back to the Home you have never left: Oneness with All.

In summary, The Treasure Map is how you truly heal and make miracles your own, as you change your mind from wrong to the right. The wrong mind is home to the shadows of sin, guilt, and fear. The right mind knows peace, love and innocence. Purify what you think from wrong to right, to be saved from suffering.
