The voice that holds the day together.

"Is Terry a family friend?" It's the question I'm asked most. By the end of the night everyone feels as if I am, because I host like one of you, never like a voice hired for the night.

THE DAY, IN FIVE ACTS

A great party is designed, not chanced.

Act I

The arrival & ceremony

Music greets every guest, setting a mood of love and excited anticipation. Your aisle walk, the signing of the register and your exit each have the song you chose.

Act II

The drinks reception

A relaxed soundtrack for photos, drinks and canapés, from Acoustic Covers to Motown & Soul.

Act III

The wedding breakfast & speeches

Elegant background music while you dine, and by the speeches a room that is relaxed, warmed up and ready to cheer.

Act IV

The turnaround

While the room is reset, the energy builds towards your Evening Entrance, the cake cutting and your first dance.

Act V

The party

The dancefloor fills magnetically, with the DJ Battle and the songs you love, and it becomes the celebration nobody wants to end.

III. THE CELEBRANT

Your story, told beautifully.

A ceremony that sounds like you, not a script. Personal, loving and intimate, with every guest leaning in.

Non-legally binding, so you can shape every word: perfect for couples already married who want to celebrate with family and friends, for vow renewals, elopements and destination weddings.

We talk, I suggest, we write your script together, and on the day you simply enjoy it.

DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Wherever you say I do.

DJ, MC and ceremony hosting for chateaux, villas, private estates and luxury hotels across Europe.

I liaise directly with your venue or planner on power, layout, sound, lighting and timings. You simply cover my travel and accommodation, itemised and agreed upfront. Ideally, reserve twelve months ahead.

GOOD TO KNOW

Your questions, answered.

Can you be both our DJ and our MC?

Yes. Most couples book me for both, so one person and one plan carry the whole day, from your ceremony music to the last song.

Will the games feel cheesy?

Never. They're optional, light-hearted and tailored to your crowd, designed to bring people together rather than put anyone on the spot.

Can we choose all the music?

As much or as little as you like. Your must-plays and do-not-plays are always respected, and guest requests are welcome as long as they fit your vibe.

Are you insured?

Yes. I carry £10m public liability insurance, and all my equipment is PAT tested.

How far ahead should we book?

As soon as you have your date. I perform at one wedding a day, so once a date is booked, it's gone.

PRIVATE ENQUIRIES

Is your date still free?

Send me your date and venue, and I'll check my diary and arrange a complimentary video consultation to talk through your day. No obligation, and you're protected by my promise: love everything I do on your day, or your money back.
