

ARE YOU WORRIED THAT RETURNING TO SCHOOL WILL BE TRAUMATIC FOR EDUCATORS AND STUDENTS?

RECOGNISE TRAUMA

WHEN IT PRESENTS

Recognize the signs and symptoms of COVID-19 induced trauma - and be equipped with our evidence-based communication skills and practices to calm and redirect educators and students. You'll get access to 10 online coaching sessions per semester providing one-on-one feedback to accelerate your skills in-practice.

RESOLVE CONFLICT

WHEN IT HAPPENS

COVID-19 means your school's capability to resolve conflict and identify trauma in your peers and classroom has never been more important. We offer a proven process to work through anxiety-induced misconduct and conflict, and create a more connected and supportive classroom.

FEEL CENTERED & BALANCED

LESS STRESSED & ANXIOUS

Our methods will prepare you for the emotional impact of COVID-19 on your students, their parents, and your colleagues. Your own well-being will be supported when you use our evidence-based conversation techniques and practices.

SAVE TIME

WITH OUR LESSON PLANS

Our lesson plans help you conduct classroom discussions about COVID-19, racial injustice, and other social crises in a way that develops students' social-emotional processing. We'll show you how to incorporate trauma-responsiveness in your curriculum.

DEVELOP PROFESSIONALLY

24/7 ONLINE

Accelerate your capabilities through online training with Dr. Will Bledsoe, a world leading expert on the application of restorative practices within educational settings. This COVID-19 specific material can contribute credits to your CPE.
