

Soul's Calling™ Coach/Facilitator Training Application 2020/21

Introduction

Soul's Calling™ Coach & Facilitator Training is a comprehensive and robust training program to help you become competent and confident as a Soul's Calling Coach or Facilitator and join our vibrant and growing tribe! There is no separate certification that you have to pay for. It is included as part of the training. Once you have successfully completed all the elements of the program, you'll be eligible for certification which means you'll be endorsed to use all our tools in your coaching practice or business.

In order to be certified you must master, create and complete certain tasks – including coaching individual clients, facilitating a workshop or class, designing an original tool, setting up your own business – service, message and simple marketing plan as well as learning all the Soul's Calling tools & roadmap and how to apply them. You'll get lessons, templates, facilitation guides, videos, coaching & mentoring to help you to master all these tasks.

Once you're certified, you'll be representing the values and beliefs of the Soul's Calling Academy in your own community, and you'll belong to our vibrant and growing tribe. It's a big commitment of both your time and energy.

The following questions are designed in order to evaluate your desire, your background, your self awareness and insight, your personal development and your commitment to Soul's Calling Coach/Facilitator training.
