Online Healer Training FAQs

FAQs

Do I need prior experience to do the training?

Whilst no prior experience is necessary to do the Foundations level training, advanced spiritual concepts are integral to Alana Fairchild's modalities and interest in spirituality - or an openness to learn about it - is necessary. We have had trainees completely new to this work take to it like the proverbial duck to water, so it is really a question of listening to your heart and trusting your life journey rather than whether you seem to be the ideal candidate on paper.

Our community ranges from those completely new to this work to seasoned professionals, trained in numerous modalities. Sometimes having a background as a healer is a benefit, and sometimes, it can be an impediment when one is stuck in a way of thinking and approach to healing, and can find it difficult to adopt a 'beginner's mind' which is essential when learning anything new and opening up to truly receive the benefit of it.

You will gain from the course according to your willingness to embrace the process. The overwhelmingly positive response to the training suggests that it meets you where you are at. You are welcome to reach out to our training team if you have any concerns about this.

Can I complete both Foundations courses at once?

Technically, yes, and we do have trainees who are doing this successfully. However both courses are energetically effective. That means that you are not only learning new information, you are being exposed to certain spiritual energies that will likely create healing change in you as you do the training. We emphasise the need to balance your participation in the program with rest and integration time. We find that this is where the healing happens.

If you feel the call to do both programs simultaneously, then please ensure that you prioritise sufficient space and rest time in your life to integrate the process that will take place as you engage with the training. We want you to get the absolute best from these heart-felt, soul-stimulating programs.

Investment and Payment Plans

Foundations programs cost USD1888 for the 16 week term and payment plans are available for USD472 per month. Please note that payment plans are run by a third party provider and we cannot customise them.

Refund Policy

In the unusual event that a trainee requests a refund, we make no guarantee regarding the training other than any implied consumer guarantees that cannot be limited by law. In Australia, rights to compensation are governed by the Australian Consumer Law.

For example, if the delivery of a training module does not correspond with our description or other consumer guarantee, you have the right to request we provide the service again or receive a refund of the fees paid in respect of the module.

You are not entitled to cancel the training and receive a refund simply because you have changed your mind. We will carefully consider any application for a refund on a case by case basis.

Dates for Training

Training terms run from March - June and August - November each year. Enrolment closes 31 March and 31 August respectively.

How strict is the pacing of the courses?

As there is considerable information to impart, the pacing of the course is quite precise, as outlined in the Study Guide for each of the foundations programs. We also provide trainees with a Self Care Guide to encourage healthy life balance during the program.

Some trainees will complete the materials early, with tremendous enthusiasm to practice professionally, and others will work according to the Study Guide, and others may find that life happens, and best intentions are not enough to keep us on track. We will support you as best we can in such cases, however generally the training requires an ongoing weekly commitment of around 4 to 6 hours. This is an estimate and the time required to explore and process the materials will vary between individuals. Please review our Study Guide to support your pace with the coursework and reach out if you have concerns.

Is the training live or recorded?

The training does include some intermittent live components, as inspired by Spirit, through the program. These are spontaneously offered extras to support the journey for trainees. The majority of course materials are prepared (written and recorded) in advance. We have received regular trainee feedback that Alana's energy transfer can often be felt in all materials, including the recordings. Alana and her team host the live group forum within a private Facebook group. through the training program.

Course Materials

Online training course materials include a combination of exclusive MP3 audio, video, PDF files, all of which are downloadable. Some trainees like to print and organise the written portions into a folder or other filing system for reference during the training and practice of the modality. Others prefer to have an electronic copy of the relevant materials on a tablet, for example, to refer to for practice.

In the online community forum, you will find a community resource library containing materials in addition to the essential course materials. The community resource library is an online resource centre for trainees and graduates, and the materials therein are offered free to trainees and graduate community members.

The community resource library containing additional practices channelled by Alana, Q & A MP3s with Alana and Dr Jo Boney, the senior course supervisor, and as well as recordings of live community Zoom events.

Specific additional supportive materials from Alana's diverse body of published works are also either recommended or required, depending on the course. Please note the list below.

Do I need extra materials not included in the training program?

For The Kuan Yin Transmission <sup>TM</sup>

The Kuan Yin Transmission Foundations course is complete within itself, with the exception of requiring a crystal for distant healing practice. A piece of clear quartz or rose quartz will suffice. Apart from the crystal, all essential materials for practice are provided within the online course itself.

There are an abundance of optional extra materials which can be integrated into the practice of the modality, such as The Kuan Yin Transmission book, music and meditation compilation album and card set, and any of Alana's oracle decks that reference Our Five Enlightened Mothers. These are currently inclusive of The Kuan Yin Oracle, The Isis Oracle, The Mother Mary Oracle, The Wild Kuan Yin Oracle and The Kali Oracle.

Also suggested are any of Alana's meditation and music albums which you may like to work with as you gain confidence to get creative with practice of the modality.

These are all optional extras that are highly supportive of the Kuan Yin Transmission training journey, and can be integrated into the practice of the modality if you wish, but are not necessary to complete the training, nor to practice the modality.

For Saraswati Healing <sup>TM</sup>

Saraswati Healing is a tools-based practice. It requires additional materials which will become part of your study materials and your materials for practicing the modality. You can choose from hard copy books and music and meditation albums, or opt for download/e versions for convenience. We find that many trainees already own some or all of the extra materials necessary for Saraswati Healing Foundations training. You will need them before the course begins, so please organise your collection accordingly prior to the course start date for your intake.

One item you will need in hard copy is the Crystal Mandala Oracle. The books for Crystal Mandala Template Training ™ will be used in your facilitation of the templates. You will need in hardcopy and/or an e-version the following titles - Crystal Angels 444, Crystal Masters 333, and Crystal Goddesses 888, as well as Messages in the Numbers - The Universe is talking to you. Please note that the coursework books are rather long and you are NOT required to read the books in their entirety in order to complete your training.

You will also use the meditation albums entitled - For Love and Light on Earth, Mystical Healing and Radiance Meditations, as well as the music album Voice of the Soul. All of these titles can be downloaded if that is preferred over hard copy in CD format.

Some trainees like to download the recordings of the healing processes of the initial three coursework books mentioned above so they have the option of reading or listening to those processes as feels best for them when running the templates, rather than reading them aloud. We encourage you to consider your preference with this.

Limited course-related materials are publicly available

To be clear, the actual course training materials themselves are NOT publicly available, however please note that some course-related materials for online training - optional in The Kuan Yin Transmission and required for Saraswati Healing - are publicly available published works by Alana.

This does not diminish the value of the training, nor the considerable course content that is exclusive to online training. If anything, it expands the relatability of the modality to prospective clients. If a person resonates with a particular published work, they may want to explore a healing session related to the content of the work. This can support our practitioner community in their work.

Training with Alana is also about more than the materials provided. The training experience is intended to stimulate and support your soul awakening, and we believe you will experience this as you truly commit yourself to the training process. The skills gained for your personal and professional journey are a bonus! Our experience over years of training is that Alana's programs offer profound healing to those who are willing to take the courageous step of courageously engaging with the process from the heart.

Access to Training Materials after the course

Access to the online training materials is available until the end of your training. This is contingent upon payment plans being honoured and protocols of confidentiality and regard for other trainees being honoured too.

You may wish to download your course materials prior to the completion of training however the transmission video itself is not available for download. Please note that downloading any materials does not imply that they can be made public or shared with anyone else. The training materials are for trainee-eyes only. The trainee community forum is only available to trainees and so access to that ends completely when you are no longer a trainee.

Your access to the training materials (minus the trainee forum) reactivates for the duration of your graduate membership. Graduate membership runs for one year from purchase date and can be purchased at any time, and renewed at any time, provided that you have completed the Foundations training. Your access to the training materials as a graduate member includes any new additions to the training materials, as well as on-going access to the Community Resource Library and new materials added there for the duration of your graduate membership.

Graduate membership includes a practitioner license agreement for practice outside of our community if desired, as well as access to the graduate forum within which there is opportunity for discussion as well as hosted practices of the modality that we can practice together as a community for individual and global healing.

Other materials or props you will likely need

Many trainees and graduates love to set up altars and can include sacred objects that resonate for them. A music player for music and meditations is also useful for study and necessary if you want to practice Saraswati Healing ™ and likely to be useful if you want to practice The Kuan Yin Transmission ™ .

Is the assessment difficult?

The assessment is a simple written offering that expresses your experience of the training and any issues that were most relevant to your process. Most trainees find the assessment to be a joyful opportunity to share their struggles and breakthroughs in the training process and the most difficult part is condensing their many experiences and sticking to the word limit!

To effectively hold our community, we need all trainees to honour the limits for assessment. A strict word limit is 750 words for a written piece in English is in place. Recommended word limit is 500 words. We can accept uploaded PDFs or documents. We cannot accept uploaded Pages documents so please ensure to convert to either word or PDF format prior to uploading.

In the unlikely event that an issue arises which needs to be rectified before we can certify you as a graduate, we will advise of this and offer a chance to re-submit your assessment.

Graduation and Next Steps

Graduation requires completion of all lessons and successful completion of a final assessment.

Upon graduation you are eligible to join our graduate community. Our graduate community is a heartfelt soul family, and provides the lifeblood for our on-going offerings together as healers.

We find the graduate community membership to be a beautiful way to express your inner healer, becoming increasingly confident and creative in our expression of the modality, experimenting with evolving applications of the work, as well as sharing support for personal healing and professional growth, all held within the loving awareness of Alana and her training team.

The graduate community is supported by a vibrant online forum hosted by Alana and her team within a private Facebook group. This is where we share our stories, we facilitate and receive healings in the modality, we co-facilitate with practitioners around the globe, working together to offer healings for our planet through global healing chains and supported independent practice.

Membership is of benefit for those with a professional practice to continually upgrade their energy, as well as offering opportunities for group modality practice for healers to do their work even if they do not necessarily wish to also run a professional practice outside of our healer training community.

Graduate community membership also provides access to the official community resource library for each modality. These online libraries are stocked with additional teachings for the graduates offered intermittently by Alana as directed by Spirit, included as part of your membership, as well as MP3 Q & A sessions with Alana and her team, and recordings of live community Zoom events. Access to these materials are included in the cost of your membership.

Graduate community membership runs for a year from purchase and costs USD188 per year, price subject to change. Membership can be purchased at any time as suits you, once you have successfully completed the Foundations training with us.

What qualifications and steps follow the Foundations training?

After successful completion of the Foundations training program, you are recognised as a graduate of our training and are eligible to purchase an annual membership to join our on-going vibrant graduate community. You can practice the modality for self-healing and for the planet as a member of our graduate community without any further steps required.

If you intend to practice with other people as a professional healer, your qualification with us as a recognised practitioner of the modality will provide you with the basis to do that - contingent upon the laws and regulations of your area. We cannot give legal advice or guarantees of your ability to practice professionally in your particular area, as local laws and regulations are outside of our control and vary widely. We can offer general guidance on the likely steps necessary for you to practice professionally, which are outlined below.

Upon qualification with us, you will likely need to obtain industry association membership. We suggest the IICT for that, as it is an organisation with global reach, and Alana is recognised by the IICT as an approved training provider and her modalities are approved modalities with the IICT.

APPROVED
Training Provider
Approved by the International Institute for Complementary Therapists

Once you have membership in an industry-recognised association such as the IICT you will then need to consider professional indemnity insurance and the various laws and regulations that may have effect on what you can practice, and where, depending on your state and country of residence.

Alana's modalities are adaptable to various circumstances such as in person practice, or practice online and/or without touch when necessary too. Our intention is that this provides you with some flexibility to be able to practice whilst honouring any legal regulations that may prevent hands on energy healing in some locations, for example, however we cannot offer guarantees regarding the legalities of working as a healer in your area.

It has been our experience that some areas within the United States, as one example, have very strict regulations around any sort of healing work, and even being able to use the word 'healing' in your practice, whilst others are far more relaxed. We encourage you to seek legal advice and carefully consider the legal or other regulations that govern freedom of spirituality, spiritual healing and energy work practices in your area.

Additional support for becoming a professional healer

If you decide to practice the modality professionally, which means receiving payment for services, and/or promoting yourself as a practitioner, associating yourself with the modality beyond our community, you will be supported by our practitioner pack.

The practitioner pack includes Practitioner Agreements and Guidelines for you to sign, and an electronic Practitioner Certificate. It also contains materials to support you in marketing your work, such as official modality and practitioner logos to include in your marketing, and general suggestions to practice heart-centred marketing of your work.

Access to our practitioner pack is included as part of your graduate community membership.

Advanced Training Options

Ongoing personal growth and professional development is fostered through graduate community membership. However some graduates are interested in taking their training to higher levels through advanced training options which are only available upon completion of the Foundations training.

Intermediate training options available

For graduates of the foundations levels, intermediate training options are available.

In Saraswati Healing, completion of the foundations course (or the full year of training in Soul Guidance and Sacred Mentoring) is all that is required to enrol in the Intermediate level training. In The Kuan Yin Transmission, intermediate level training is available to graduates of the foundations levels. You do not have to be a practitioner, nor wish to become one, in order to complete the next levels of training. As always, practice of the modalities for self-healing and planetary healing within our community is available to all graduates.

You can find information including course outlines, self-care and study guides on the intermediate level and other levels of training which are updated regularly at www.alanafairchild.com and at healing.alanafairchild.com where you can also enrol in the training.

The advanced 16 week Saraswati Healing™ course is currently available for enrolment in March and August intakes for Graduates of the foundations course.

Kuan Yin Transmission™ advanced, teacher and secret master teachings are currently wait-list only and in process of being channeled by Alana.

Investment and Payment Plans for Saraswati Healing Intermediate Level

Intermediate Level programs cost USD1888 for the 16 week term and payment plans are available for USD472 per month. Please note that payment plans are run by a third party provider and we cannot customise them.

Saraswati Healing Intermediate Training Course Extension Fees Apply

If you are unable to complete your training in the 16 week structure time due to unforeseen circumstances arising, you will need to pay a course transfer fee of USD488.

This fee will be valid for 12 months from the initial start date of your training.

If you need more than 12 months extension time, you would have to re-enrol and pay the full training course fee again.

Please Note - there may be a further fee of approx 100USD per extra assessment required (in order to cover team administration and assessment marking outside of the 16 week course structure time).

Do I need to speak English well to complete the training?

You will need very good English speaking and reading skills to be able to complete the training with Alana in English. If you can read one of Alana's books or decks in English then that is a guide that your skills are high enough to complete the training.

The Kuan Yin Transmission modality requires minimal English to practice, and once learned, can easily be practiced in your mother tongue with those in your community who may not speak much English at all.

The Saraswati Healing modality is a strongly language-based practice. We have many global practitioners of the modality, however if you are going to practice it with non-English speaking clients, you will need exceptional and swift translation skills. In many cases, this will simply not be practical, and so whilst we are seeking course translations, we recommend that you be very comfortable with English before enrolling in Saraswati Healing.

If you are planning on using this modality for self-healing, and planetary healing, rather than with non-English speaking clients, and you are comfortable with speaking, listening and reading in English, then you will be fine to complete the training with Alana in English.

Will the training be offered in other language translations?

Due to demand, we are currently seeking translators and course support staff to support offering of Alana's online courses in other languages. Please email us to express your interest in a language translation at admin@alanafairchild.com.

What do the names of the modalities mean?

The names for these modalities came to me in meditation for The Kuan Yin Transmission and in a dream for Saraswati Healing.

Saraswati Healing is named after the radiant goddess of creativity, voice, manifestation, music, prophecy and wisdom - Saraswati. She gracefully flies upon a celestial bird, wearing her mala prayer beads and divine musical instrument, weaving magic, music and blessings through our Universe.

In this modality we connect with the potency of Saraswati utilising voice, writings, music, divination, meditation, movement and sacred healing rituals to generate powerful divine energy fields dedicated to healing and liberation for the greater good. We work for self healing and for the benefit of all beings, including our beautiful planet.

The Kuan Yin Transmission is named after the beloved goddess of compassion, Kuan Yin, who is found under various names and many different forms throughout Eastern spirituality. She is a being of divine grace, love and wisdom that I feel a very strong personal devotion and bond with, and it is my profound honour to share the techniques of The Kuan Yin Transmission through the training, teaching others how to channel her energies for the benefit of all.

There is much concern for matters of cultural respect and care these days, which is as it should be. Not only is there a need for cultural respect, but there are also spiritual and karmic considerations to take into account. I took time to reflect upon these names and ensure that I recognised something more than spiritual permission to share them. I waited until I felt active encouragement from my Higher Spiritual Guidance before proceeding. Once that was given, I felt joy in my heart to continue to associate my work with the divine ones that I love so deeply. To associate the divine name of an enlightened being with my work is something that I consider to be a tremendous privilege and the names of the divine ones we always treat with love and respect.

I consider all of my work to be a gift and a blessing, and I do not take any of it for granted. This is my expression of spiritual responsibility and integrity. Feeling that inner clarity gives me peaceful confidence in how I share the work, as well as its alignment with an inspired and loving higher purpose, beauty and effectiveness.

Next steps

The soul yearns for authentic experience of the sacred, for creativity, freedom, healing and depth, for connection to genuine spiritual light. It needs these things in order to grow and flourish.

Is it time for your soul to be nourished for the next step on your sacred life path?

The feedback on the courses, and in the private assessment reflections of trainees regularly has me in tears of wonder, gratitude and awe. The loving hand of spirit, the authenticity of this work, evokes such beauty and healing. It is a sweet sacred gift and a deep honour to be able to share this with you.
