Frequently Asked Questions for Online Training

Can I do the training if I live in a different time zone to Alana?

We have created the training so you can complete the work in your own time, with flexibility. No matter where you are in the world, as long as you have internet access to download the materials, you can complete the training.

Once each lesson begins, there will be combinations of text, and/or video and/or MP3 audio and/or PDF documents for you to download and watch, listen to and read for that lesson. You can do this in your own time, and we will email you a student guide at the beginning of the course so that you can manage the timing of your studies and keep up with the pace of the program as best you can, however you are encouraged to work to your own timing within the total six month period for the training.

Do I get live contact with Alana during the training?

Alana and her support team, including the training angel Holliebeth are supervising the online community forum for live support during the training. The team, and at times Alana herself, answers questions and Alana provides additional supportive materials through the training as she feels is needed into the Community Resource Library.

Alana and her team may create additional audio or live online sessions during the program if she feels it is needed. These sessions will either be pre-recorded so you can hear them any time, or if offered as a webinar event in which you may wish to participate live. Please note that our trainees hail from many different countries worldwide. We do our best to schedule live sessions so that trainees from as many different time zones as possible can attend.

The private Kuan Yin Transmission™ community forum (held away from social media) is an important way to stay in touch with your classmates and receive regular guidance and additional instruction. Some members prefer to read through the content, whilst others share photos, stories and experiences. For all involved, it can be a rich forum for learning and bonding as a group.

You will receive an invitation to join the group after your first lesson in the foundations training. Membership is free for the duration of the foundations training, an additional free month is offered upon graduation, with an option to continue your membership at USD188 per year thereafter. This is largely to cover administration costs of hosting the forum.

How do I know if this program is right for me?

We believe that you'll know if this program is meant for you, because something inside of you will just want to do it. You might not know why, but when you are attracted to the program, we genuinely feel that there is a divine reason for that. Trust it! Your mind may doubt but when your heart speaks, listen. If your intuition is urging you, then we encourage you to take the leap of trust and join us. If you have specific questions about the training, you can email us with your questions at training@alanafairchild.com

I am not sure about being a healer, but I still want to do the training. Is this OK?

Absolutely! The program has been designed to offer benefit personally and spiritually whether you choose to practice as a professional healer later on or not. If you are attracted to the training, then we feel that this is because you need the frequency of it. It has been designed to support and assist you in many ways and you are just as welcome to enrol if you are doing this 'just for you' as you are to enrol if you want professional training as a healer. Our community is a mixture of professional healers and people who practice personally - we are all in this together and there is equal respect for the contribution that we all make in honouring and embracing our individual spiritual path in life.

What can the training do for me?

Professionally, this training has been created to empower you to begin or enhance your career as a healer and teacher working with spiritual energy to help others grow and heal spiritually. It is designed to help you learn how to earn an income doing meaningful work that you love.

As a licensed practitioner you can share the modality in many ways to support healing and awakening of spiritual light for the benefit of all beings. You will be taught how to connect with Our Five Enlightened Mothers - Kuan Yin, Isis, Mother Mary, Tara and Kali - and how to channel their energies through the integrative function of the planet Venus. You will be shown techniques for psychic protection and for spiritual healing. You can use these techniques to promote healing for yourself, for others, and for our planet.

Upon successful completion of the Foundations Program, you will be able to apply for a practitioner's license which includes one year's right to practice, ongoing support in our community forum and access to our community resource library, as well as eligibility to complete advanced coursework on The Kuan Yin Transmission™ Pathway. As a practitioner, you can apply for professional insurance and be supported by our team in further developing your spiritual healing skills if you choose. We want to see you succeed and the program has been created to support you in many ways to become all that you are divinely destined to be.

Trainees have shared with us that opening up to this sacred work has attracted some amazing experiences and opportunities into their lives. We believe that you can grow more confident, clear, committed and respected on your professional spiritual path through the training. We also believe that the world needs you to be brave, to believe in yourself and trust in all that you were born to become.

On a personal level, this training is intended to support your own growth and spiritual development. You will learn skills and knowledge that you can use in your daily life as well as in the healing room. Part of Alana's philosophy is that training is not just about the work that you do as a healer, but about how you live your life. We envision that you'll grow in many ways that are loving, empowering and appealing through exposure to the higher level guidance that is at the heart of this training program, whether you dream of being a professional healer or simply want to complete the training as a gift to yourself for your own divine journey.
