Who am I?

Liesbet is a executive coach (PCC, + 3000hours coaching) with more than 15 years of management experience in a multinational and in a SMEs environment. She travelled extensively and lived in different countries. At Colgate Palmolive she developed a thorough knowledge of what it takes to work in teams and to manage people cross countries and cultures. Over the past years she worked as an executive coach and trainer with companies from very different sectors (FMCG, telecom, pharma, retail, consulting, European Commission,...)

Liesbet is a passionate coach who loves to work on values, beliefs and identity levels and can easily bring it down to concrete business context and results thanks to her own broad leadership experience.

Liesbet starts from the deep belief in the potential of each individual and the drive to help people (re-)connect and grow. She combines a warm and spontaneous approach with a healthy dose of boldness, and confrontation. She describes herself as an instigator with a very quick analytic mind.
