21 QUESTIONS TO AN EXTRAORDINARY BOOK

“Write until it becomes as natural as breathing, write until not writing makes your anxious.”

Great Books are:

- a) Outcome focused. Once your WHY is understood (AND it’s a good & enthusiastic WHY) you’re 90% there!
- b) In line with your values. The more a book aligns with your inner or core values – the EASIER it will be to write it and market it successfully.
- c) Stated in the positive. (i.e. “I want healthy relationships” rather than “I want to stop being in unhealthy relationships.”)

and SMART:

Specific (so you know exactly what you are trying to say and to what audience)

Measurable (so you know when you have achieved it!)

Action-oriented (so you can DO something about what you’re writing about)

Realistic (so it IS achievable) in what you’re writing about

Time-Bound (has a deadline) What is your deadline?

Focusing on the Outcome of the book:

1. What type of book do you want to birth (eBook, biography, memoir, how to book, training manual, play, etc.)?
2. What is it that you REALLY want to say to your audience? Why is your message important? Dig deep, meditate upon finding your core message (this helps determine a profound and clear subtitle).

3. What audience do you want to reach?

4. What is the SPECIFIC OUTCOME that you are looking for (what do you want your audience to take away from your book? Focus on adverb words. i.e. My audience will have clarity into who they are.....(this helps with the title of each chapter)

9.

10.

5. What is the COST in NOT achieving your goal? How will it affect your life?

6. What is the RESULT for you authoring a book? How will it impact your life? Your business? How will it make you feel? How will your audience feel?

Aligning with your Values:

7. Is this message/book in line with your life vision/overall life-plan? If you don't know, what does your gut-feel?

8. Is this goal in authoring a book in line with your values? Ask yourself what's REALLY important to you in life - will this book help you achieve more of that?

9. Is your message something YOU truly want to say, or is it something you think you SHOULD say or what others say you

SHOULD be doing? If it's a SHOULD, it may be someone else's dream...(This is often the reason why so many have not completed their book or published it.)

10. How does this goal of authoring a book fit into your life/lifestyle? Think time, effort, commitments, budget?

Identifying Obstacles:

11. Can YOU start & maintain a consistent relationship with your coach/ ghostwriter/ accountability partner till the completion of your book? Sometimes weekly skype or phone meetings are necessary at the allocated time.
12. WHAT might you have to give up/stop doing to achieve this goal? Essentially, what's the price of making this change - and are you willing to pay it?
13. If there was something important around achieving this goal (to help you succeed, or that could get in the way) that you haven't mentioned yet, what would it be?

Goal Sizing:

14. How many chapters of your book would you like?
15. What would be the MINIMUM page count?
16. What would be the MAXIMUM page count?
17. What would be your EXTRAORDINARY level of HAPPINESS for your book?

18. What RESOURCES do you already have to help you achieve your book goal completion? (quotes, articles, books, websites, people, finances etc.). Create a list!
