One Selfish Quarter : A Celebration Of Change

An invitation to spend three Selfish months with me, focused on you, having a breakthrough by learning to think differently.

The only thing that stands between what you want and what you have is your thinking.

The way you feel, everything you do and the results you create are all caused by the thoughts you think and the beliefs you hold.

You are never limited by your situation, only by your thinking.

Most women think their blocks and problems are circumstantial, but they never are, it's always a thinking problem.

I can teach you to think differently.

I can show you the extent of what's possible for you and your life by showing you how your current thinking is holding you back and how to change it.

"Of course I'll give you a testimonial Maree, the work you do is fcking amazing. Just fcking hire her."

50ish,

Hey, I'm Maree White, I'm a Mid Life Coach and I teach women how to think differently about this next most significant chapter of life.

One Selfish Quarter is my new three month 1:1 coaching program for women who want to deepen their understanding of themselves and create a more self expressed life.

This program is for women who have arrived in and around mid life who want to have a breakthrough but recognise the way they are thinking is holding them back.

Curious?

One Selfish Quarter is designed to create a powerful breakthrough in your life. We work one on one in an area where you feel blocked. I teach you the principles of my work, I show you how to apply them, and then I coach you where you get stuck. We are dedicated to your transformation.

It's a little bit like an apprenticeship only sexier and shorter.

*"My whole life has changed, literally transformed.
Working with Maree changes everything".*

50ish.

If this sounds like you, or someone you know here is the invitation.

For a limited time, and as an introductory offer, I want to offer this work for half the price it will be when I take it to a broader audience in exchange for a testimonial/review upon completion of the work.

So, if you have ever thought about working with a life coach, this is a great opportunity to try.

The cost of the tuition is $2000.00 (+ gst). It is a comprehensive, fully supported three month private coaching package with full access to me as your coach, teacher, mentor and guide during the process.

If you are interested to know more and talk about your specific breakthrough you can book a free 25-minute Q & A call with me here and we'll talk it through.

The offer is LIMITED.
Cut off date is the 28th September or when the 10 places are taken - Whichever comes first.

Keen as mustard and don't want to miss out?
