

Names:

Puerto Rico Strong: Literary Analysis

Date:

Conflict What is one conflict that repeats across various stories? Internal or External Type: Example 1: Example 2: Example 3:	Characterization Once the anthology is complete and you reflect on the stories, what is one character trope that becomes evident? Explain.
Motif What is one motif that is present across various stories in this anthology? What might this motif represent about Puerto Rican history, culture, or way of life?	Theme How do the literary techniques/elements of conflict, motif, and characterization come together to impact or develop a theme present in this text?