

Level-Up Your Leadership with Leader Circles

Leader Circles crafts and runs affordable peer groups for leaders at every level. Peer groups or what we refer to as “circles” are one of the most effective tools available to leaders. Leading is challenging and unfortunately doesn’t come with a user manual. Level-up your leadership by participating in a circle to help you work on yourself, your leadership, and your organization each month alongside other smart, experienced, and non-competitive peers who know what it means to lead.

Our peer-based leader meetings are structured to help you solve challenges, make better decisions, improve your leadership, increase your confidence, encourage accountability, and offer you support. Be challenged and supported by your peers who understand what it means to be in your position. Join Leader Circles for yourself, your team, and your organization.

Join For Yourself

- ◆ To invest in the greatest asset you can develop, yourself.
- ◆ To become the leader you desire to be by intentionally working on yourself and your leadership.
- ◆ To continually improve and keep pace with the growth of your organization so it doesn’t outgrow your leadership.

Join For Your Team

- ◆ To empower your team to grow to their potential. Because you can only take someone as far as you have gone yourself.
- ◆ To inspire and motivate your team and be a leader worthy of being followed by them.
- ◆ To ensure your team keeps pace with the growth of the organization and is ready to drive it into the future.

Join For Your Organization

- ◆ To be in a position to help continue to drive your company into the future.
- ◆ To differentiate your business from your competitors and maintain a competitive advantage in your market.
- ◆ To successfully execute the strategy and achieve the long-term vision of the organization.

“My peer group has been and continues to be one of the greatest professional and personal experiences of my career.”

Elaine Charpentier Philippi, MSW, Executive Director of In4All

“I would recommend any business leader that is looking to improve their leadership and development, to join.”

Brad Windecker, CEO of Orchestra Software

When you are a better leader, everyone in your life benefits including your team and organization. Below are some benefits you may realize after working with your circle.

- ◆ Make Better Decisions: We tend to get locked in our own thinking or that of our organization and/or team at times. Your leader circle is designed to challenge your thinking to help you make better decisions.
- ◆ Improve Your Leadership: Meetings include curriculum designed to help you grow and build skills in key leadership development areas. Your peers will also provide feedback and help you identify blindspots you may not be aware of yet.
- ◆ Increase Your Confidence: By using a strengths-based approach, you will enhance what you naturally do well, and over time feel more confident in leading your team and organization.
- ◆ Account For Your Commitments: Move in the direction that you intend to. Your circle expects you to do what you say you will do and follow through on the commitments you make.
- ◆ Feel Supported: In each circle, trust and care is intentionally developed in a confidential setting. You will be a part of a unique team that wants you to succeed in business and life. There is no experience like it.
