

Holden Fincher

Guitar Coach

Holden Fincher is a musician born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia. Fincher has spent the past 6 years as a contract writer and player for both studio and live settings, while also stepping into the role of music director and composer for various events. He is also a co-founder and member of Eirene Dreams, a group creating within a number of artistic outlets including: clothing design, music production, creative marketing, videography, photography and graphic design.