

Jacob Foster

Guitar Coach

I was born and raised in Woodstock, GA. Music has been part of my life from the beginning. My dad was the choir director at church growing up and my oldest sister played piano for church as well.

I got my first guitar for Christmas when I was in the 7th grade. I practiced chords out of a book I had nonstop. I loved it so much and felt so accomplished whenever I would learn something new that I never thought I would be able to play.

At 15 I started playing for the youth service at my church. I met some really incredible people that challenged me both musically and spiritually and really helped shape me during my high school years.

After high school I started playing around churches in the area (mostly Woodstock City Church and First Baptist Woodstock) and continued to get more and more opportunities to play guitar for other artists. I've played for country artists, pop/r&b artists, indie rock bands, and Dove Award winning Gospel artists. Currently I attend Passion City Church where I serve on the worship team led by Kristian Stanfill.

I love the power of music and how it brings people together and connects us with God. It is an honor to be able to pour into aspiring musicians at Rooted Music Coaching!
