Would You Teach a Fish to Climb a Tree? A Different Take on Kids with ADD, ADHD, OCD and Autism

by Anne Maxwell, LCSW, Gary M. Douglas and Dr. Dain Heer

This book, an international best seller, is filled with practical tools, stories, observations, and life changing questions that can be used by anyone who has one of these kids in their life and who is looking for something different. Parents and siblings and relatives; teachers and therapists and administrators; peers and loved ones and friends ... all will benefit from this groundbreaking book. It provides us with a refreshing and new perspective on these children, who are so different from their peers.

The Keys to the Magic: A Play Therapist's Handbook of Family Centered Play Therapy

By Anne Maxwell, LCSW

“The handbook I wish I had been given when I began my career as a child and family and play therapist.” Based on the form of therapy Anne developed over the course of her clinical practice, called Family Centered Play Therapy, this handbook is a guide to any play therapist who would like to integrate parents into the play therapy process. Anne’s model facilitates healing and creates a way for therapists to feel more confident and at ease with the inclusion – or not – of parents into play therapy sessions.
