

Class Cancellation and Reimbursement Policy

- Payment can be fully reimbursed up until the first class during the session in question.
- If you are unsure that the class is appropriate for you or your baby/child, it is recommended to try two classes. The first one is always the most challenging as it's a new environment for you and your child and everyone may be a bit nervous. The second class will give you more of a realistic view.
- If you decide not to continue with us after the first class, your payment is refundable minus 20$ (this is the price of the first trial class).
- Your last chance to get a refund is at the end of the day of the second class. Please advise us before midnight on the day of your second class if you do not wish to continue. In this case, your payment will be partially refunded. We will keep 37$ and you will be refunded the remainder. For example, Lisa paid 96$ + tax= 110.38$. MamaDances would keep 37$ and Lisa would receive a refund of 73.38$ on her credit card.

Policy on Class Absences

There are no refunds in the case of absences. However, we would like you to benefit from the classes you paid for. It is possible for you to retake missed classes if you opt for our membership.
