

Construction & Capital Projects Consultant

---

Inspirational Speaker

Sally Love is best described as smart, compassionate and encouraging. She loves helping people unlock their potential and achieve more than they believed possible, through changes in their mind-set and skill-set.

Sally successfully engages and motivates audiences to take action and make a meaningful impact in the world through their work, by challenging them to make the changes needed to lead, empower and deliver. Sally is able to equip each of your team members to become a person of purpose.

Engage and Inspire Your Audience

If you're interested in Sally working with you or booking her to deliver her Signature Keynote at your next industry or corporate event, please contact us at www.sallyloveconsulting.com.

Sally will also work with you to create a Keynote or Presentation uniquely suited to your audience.

Sally's Signature Keynote

The Surprising TRUTHS About Delivering Record-Breaking Projects in the Construction Industry.

Why is it that some capital projects and construction companies enjoy success while others are deemed epic failures?

In Sally's Signature Keynote, she reveals the surprising TRUTHS that make the difference and shares what you can absolutely, unequivocally do about it, starting today.

"Your people are your biggest source of untapped potential. You have to believe that your people matter!" Sally Love

Recognized Industry Expert

Sally is a recognized authority in construction and capital projects having consulted with leaders in some of the most recognized brands across the United States and internationally in Brazil, France, New Zealand, Germany, Ireland, Canada, South Korea, Spain and Italy.

Sally is an engaging speaker bringing passionate inspiration to her audiences and motivating them to take action to achieve results they never believed possible. She inspires audiences at:

- Industry Conferences
- Corporate Events & Retreats
- Industry Association Meetings
- Corporate Meetings & Summits
- Project Town Halls & Celebrations

Sally has designed and served as chairperson and moderator for CEO panels, executive outlooks and industry leader summits including TAPPI and several McGraw Hill's prestigious ENR (Engineering News Record) events in Washington, DC and New York.

---

"Sally, you did a fabulous job in sharing your insights with the audience. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for your time and contribution."

"Comments like: 'the best speaker at the conference' and 'some of the most beneficial information for my organization' were common on the survey of attendees regarding Sally's presentation., so we invited her back several years in a row."

"Sally is at the cutting edge of employee engagement and motivation; and her presentations are always applicable and practical."

Sally Love

Sally Love is CEO of Sally Love Consulting and has over 35 years of success helping capital project leaders, construction company owners and executives deliver extraordinary results.

Sally is a sought after consultant and speaker and is known for her lively enthusiasm, heartfelt passion and down-to-earth approach for bringing out the best in people.

Sally draws on real-life situations, best practices and remarkable case studies to engage her audience and inspire them to make a meaningful impact and lasting difference in this wonderful industry.

Sally has a unique giftedness in relating to people on every level - senior executives, middle managers and team members in the field.

Sally lives in her second-most favorite place in the world, Greenville, South Carolina, with her husband and two adorable beagles.