Reach for the stars with Migrant Leaders

Life in a new country can be tough, even as a second-generation migrant, for several reasons including the likelihood that your family may lack the professional networks that can help you progress in your career. However, Migrant Leaders aims to help talented young people like you reach the very top of the corporate world in Britain through its development programme. You will be able to unlock workplace opportunities, make valuable connections, build your capability and achieve everything you deserve in life.

How does it do this?

There are three main branches of our programme for candidates who are accepted after convincing us they have the will to succeed:

- Structured online learning modules, optional conferences and workshops which build your capability and prepare you for the challenges ahead
- Being paired with skilled senior mentors from top organisations who will provide you with valuable advice every week, as you move from school to further education to employment
- Obtaining quality work experience opportunities in leading firms as a result of Migrant Leaders' valuable network of connections

“Elham pushed me to think positively and not let adversity and my family background as Somali refugees limit my achievements or hope for the future. She quickly helped me create momentum and gave me the structure and instruction I needed to go for jobs in my chosen field. She inspired me by sharing her own past challenges and made me realise that most of the limitations are in our own minds and once we get that right we can achieve almost anything.”

The Development Programme application process

Migrant Leaders will consider applications in a 2 stage process.

Candidates are considered on the basis of their capabilities, courage and motivation. If they are selected for stage 2:

Further questions

Q I am studying for exams. How much time will this take?

A: The most vital modules are delivered in the first two years, primarily online with optional attendance at our conferences and workshops. You should expect to spend around one hour per week on average on this online/classroom based learning. In addition you would be encouraged to have a 30-45 minute mentoring call with your 1-2-1 mentor each week or as needed for key decisions, challenges or milestones.

Q Due to my circumstances I messed up my exams, does this prevent me from applying?

A: Perseverance in the face of adversity is an important strength. Let us know what happened in your personal statement and we will consider your case.

Q Will I get feedback on my application from Migrant Leaders?

A: Yes. We will respond to every application with constructive feedback that will help you plan your future.

Q What happens if I am not accepted? Can I reapply?

A: Yes. Digest the feedback and try again the next time applications are invited on our website. You will still have access to the Migrant Leaders resources for subscribers on our website.

Q Will my mentor have empathy for my background?

A: Students are carefully matched with their mentors, many of whom have had personally challenging journeys themselves.

Q I have been in trouble with the police in the past, will this mean I can't apply?

A: Applications are welcome from all regardless of nationality, race, religion, gender or background. We will ask you for a Confidential Criminal Record Declaration before we invite you for interview. Having a criminal record does not automatically disbar you from the Development Programme, but we will consider if it is relevant.
